ARC 2201, Theory in Arch I, 3 credits.

The course provides an introduction to contemporary architectural theories, their evolution and their historical basis.

Course Goals & Objectives:

To develop a knowledge base for critical commentary.
To explore the historical basis for contemporary architectural thought.
To review the evolution of different architect’s theories.
To afford the student a forum to develop his or her own theories of architecture.

Student Performance Criterion/a addressed:

Introductory course focusing on Theory & Theory Application Awareness.

Topical Outline:

Knowledge Base   40%
Historical Basic of Theory 40%
Student Theory Processes 10%
Thought Process: Critical Thinking 10%

Prerequisites:

None

Textbooks/Learning Resources:

Knight, Roy _______ of Miscellaneous Reading Complication
Unwin, Simen Subscriptions to Professional Journals Architecture Architectural Record.

Offered:

Fall only; annually

Faculty assigned:

Olivier Chamel (Adjunct)
Roy Knight (F/T)
Gretchen Miller (Visiting)