ARC 2701, History of Architecture I, 3 credits.

The lecture course provides an in-depth study of critical positions related to the objects or artifacts which are able to communicate, symbolize, express or embody 20th century architectural thought.

Course Goals & Objectives:

To understand the cultural development of architecture as an art form and the creative processes that generated it from prehistoric to medieval times.
To study and analyze the social role played by architecture.
To introduce the ideas and theories that shaped architecture during the period under study.

Student Performance Criterion/a addressed:

None

Topical Outline:

Analysis of architectural examples from prehistoric to medieval times. -----See Andrew

Prerequisites:

None

Textbooks/Learning Resources:

Offered:

Fall only; annually

Faculty assigned:

Arleen Pabón-Charneco (F/T)