CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you everyone. Thanks for coming right back so soon to help us deal with our agenda at Florida A & M University. I think I heard someone else come on?

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Yes, sir, this is Trustee Graham.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Graham is on. Okay. Now we are here today to deal with just one agenda item, and it's an action item and it's a continuation and follow-up of something that we've done some preliminary work on. We have to approve the 2014/2015 final operating budget, and at this time I would like to ask the vice chairman of the Board and a committee chairperson, Trustee Montgomery, to introduce the fiscal year 2014/2015 operating budget.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Mr. Chair, I believe a roll call would be in order, roll call --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: I thought I was calling the roll when I was ringing them off.

Okay. Thank you. Let's retrogress and call the roll, please.

MS. ABDI: Thank you, Chair Badger.
CHAIRMAN BADGER: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Alston.
TRUSTEE ALSTON: Yes, I'm here.
CHAIRMAN BADGER: Chair Badger?
(NO RESPONSE).
MS. ABDI: Trustee Boyce.
TRUSTEE BOYCE: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Graham.
TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Lawson.
TRUSTEE LAWSON: I'm here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee McWilliams.
TRUSTEE MCWILLIAMS: I'm here.
MS. ABDI: Vice Chair Montgomery.
TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Moore.
TRUSTEE MOORE: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Persaud.
TRUSTEE PERSAUD: Here.
MS. ABDI: Trustee Shannon.
(NO RESPONSE).
MS. ABDI: Trustee Turnbull.
(NO RESPONSE).
MS. ABDI: Trustee Warren.
(NO RESPONSE).
MS. ABDI: Trustee White.

TRUSTEE WHITE: Here.

TRUSTEE SHANNON: Trustee Shannon is here. I was muted, sorry.

MS. ABDI: Thank you.

Mr. Chair, you do have a quorum. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you.

Then I'll ask again if Trustee Montgomery will go ahead and introduce the 2014/2015 operating budget item.

Trustee Montgomery.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Trustees, we have on today's agenda a request regarding approval of the final operating budget for fiscal year 2014/2015. A preliminary operating budget was approved at our June 4, 2014, meeting.

I would like to ask Doctor Mangum to make her introductory comments and to have her staff make any necessary presentation.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Doctor Mangum.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Thank you, Chairman Badger and Trustee Montgomery.

One or two of the opening comments that I have prior to staff entertaining any questions... that you have is that I think we have a very important budget that we're implementing this year that requires and that introduces several changes that we're interested in with regard to becoming more efficient and effective in our operations. You will notice that in looking at this particular budget where the variances are and some of the changes that have been made in our budget for 2013/14 as compared to 2014/15.

We think that the resources that we have will allow us to meet our operating needs and that our budget at the end of the year, as we have planned it, will be balanced; however, because it is at the beginning of the year, we would like the flexibility to be able to make decisions within this budget to address any issues as they arise with the goal of maintaining a balanced budget at the end of the year.

So with that, I'd like to have the VP for finance and the Director of Budget entertain any questions that you might have about the budget as it has been proposed.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Thank you, Doctor Mangum. Are there any questions? Any questions on the budget?
(NO RESPONSE).

PRESIDENT MANGUM: So hearing no questions, we'd like to propose that you move forward with approval.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Yes, sir.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: I have a question that I guess in its semblance would be related to the budget. I've asked the administration and Doctor Mangum a number of questions that are budget related and I haven't received answers to those questions. I'll preface my comments by saying that I do believe we need to pass the budget today, but I also feel it would be irresponsible to continue in that posture while there are open questions, at a minimum, to have a defined period of time in which we'll have answers to those questions.

On July 22nd, I asked Doctor Mangum to provide a copy of the current operating procedures for donor development, engagement -- engagement in maintenance. I also asked for a written monthly snapshot of fundraising activity, including a year-to-date and an actual (inaudible), and that's related to the challenges that we've had in the areas of fundraising and how that impacts our budget.

On July 31st, I asked Doctor Mangum to be prepared to discuss questions that were asked during the June 2014 budget discussion in Crestview. As you recall, we passed the preliminary budget, and that was subject to adjustment in final Board approval, which is why we're here today.

I asked for a list of questions and answers from that Budget and Finance meeting, and I asked for a summary just to be provided to the members of the Committee.

I asked Doctor Mangum -- I had some problems with grammar and spelling and the way we were getting documents. I asked, you know, if she allowed (inaudible) to communicate with Board members that way, aren't they likely to follow in the same pattern in communication with external stakeholders. I also asked would your governing body, the Board of Trustees, be embarrassed if official communication goes out from FAMU to the Board of Governors or the legislature with basic spelling or grammatical errors.

A week later I asked when can we expect a working solution to this problem. That was August 2nd. On August 7th I did get a call back from CFO and the President to discuss these things and I felt, well, okay, maybe they have this under control. And then I get an email announcing the President's inaugural that has more spelling and grammar errors. I had a document from the VP for communications, and we had improper subject and verb agreement and maybe ten errors that I spent almost an hour walking the person through.

So you may ask how this ties to the budget fund. I want to ensure that whatever is transmitted from this point is something that's reflective of the excellence that we've come to know at Florida A & M. I think it's a serious -- I wrote on August 7th that this is a serious problem that requires an immediate solution, and my question was: Do we need a discussion about spelling and improper grammar during an upcoming committee or Board meeting to fix the problem? I did not get a response.

The next day I sent an email, which you were all in receipt of, and I asked several additional questions. The first one was a response to the email with a clarifying statement about the problem. So far I keep hearing: Well, we're doing our best, or we're pursuing excellence. And to me, at this point, that's unacceptable.

I also requested answers to several additional questions, one is: What's the total annual budget for all communications activity? And just give me an estimate. I said, an estimate will suffice for now. I asked: What's the total of the communications-related expenditures for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2013/2014 and separately for July 2014?

This data should be readily available. It should be somewhere where it's instant and upon demand. And for the last quarter it should already be recorded somewhere, so I thought it was a reasonable request that could be responded to prior to this meeting.

I asked how many FTE are involved in direct communication with the Board of Trustees and the total salary and benefits attributed to this group. That question has not been responded to or answered in the form of that email. I asked how many FTE are assigned to communications-related activity and the total salary and benefits attributed to this.
group. And the idea is if we are spending millions to be able to communicate with people, why aren't specific problems that are being addressed by a board member being addressed and, you know, what's the date at which this will be done? So, you know, what level of excellence are we looking to achieve?

Oh, and I forgot, I asked for a detailed verbal or written briefing on the athletics department plan for deficit reduction and a summary of actions taken as a result in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2013/2014 and also in July. So I find it within my scope as chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee and as Vice Chairman of the Board to request a briefing in the form of a call from the University President, our only employee, prior to any called or scheduled meetings of my committee or of the full board.

I had this level of communication prior to this new administration, and it led us to not having to have these type of public discussions because we could have discussions directly with the individuals who are responsible. I played phone tag with the athletic director almost a week ago, but we've not been able to connect and to have a communication with regard to my concerns.
So, again, I will vote to approve the budget today because I think it would be irresponsible for us not to, but I also think it would be irresponsible for us to continue to operate from a position where questions are being asked by members of the Board, particularly in the area of the budget, and then there's failure on the administration's behalf to respond.

If you're looking to me from a leadership role with the responsibility in budget and finance, if you're looking for me to be informed and to make informed decisions, I am not in a position to do so if I do not have prompt and a free-flowing, transparent exchange of information with the administration.

I wanted to bring that to the Board's attention prior to the vote. Again, I will urge my colleagues to vote in approval of the budget, as it would create another -- a myriad of additional problems if it was not approved. But going forward and in the next Budget and Finance Committee, I am just requesting that these questions be answered. And if there's any problem or if it's a funding issue where the funds aren't available or it's not adequately being funded with regard to the ability to respond to these questions, that the administration let us know right now so that we can, as a board, from our governance capacity, our fiduciary responsibility, be informed about why these things aren't getting done.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay, Trustee Montgomery.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: As I said, I'd move that we approve -- or for final approval of this budget.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. You've heard the motion.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: Mr. Chairman, before we do, can I just ask a question to them?

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Persaud.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: My concern is that I understand some dorms will be closed or refurbished and the new dorm open, and I was wondering how would this impact the budget, the closing of dorms or even the refurbishing of dorms if --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Doctor Mangum, do you have a response for that, or Mr. Bakker?

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: If I may, I think the appropriate time would be during the discussion phase of the motion.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: Okay. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: The motion is on the floor.
Is there a second?

TRUSTEE LAWSON: Second.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: It's motioned and seconded. Those in favor, let it be known by the sign aye.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: I think there was a question on the table, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Any discussion?

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Trustee Persaud addressed a question to Doctor Mangum. If we could get her response, please.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. I'm sorry. I'm sorry, you're right.

Doctor Mangum, you are -- Mr. Bakker or someone on your staff, do you have a response to Trustee Montgomery's request for responses to a numerous amount of questions?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: We do, and then we can ask -- we will also, if permitted, answer Trustee Persaud's question.

With regard to the various questions that Trustee Montgomery listed, I don't have a record of having been asked those questions specifically. So I need to see them in writing and then we could get responses to him directly.

The questions regarding the June 4th, Budget and Finance Committee meeting, our tradition has been to produce the answers to those questions at the next committee meeting; however, in response to a question to have those -- a question by Trustee Montgomery to have those answers sooner, they were attached to this agenda. And I think the questions that most people may have a copy of, the title of the document that's in this particular meeting's agenda is entitled June 4th, 2014, Budget and Finance Committee responses. You'll see the list of questions that were asked at that meeting, according to the minutes, and a list of responses to each of those questions included in the material that you received for this meeting today.

If -- so the other question with regard to housing and whether or not housing, the occupancy of the new facility and the closing of the other facilities are included in this budget, I'll turn it to Vice President Bakker, but I'm sure they are there.

VICE PRESIDENT BAKKER: Trustee Persaud, declining enrollment resulted in a reduction in the demand for housing. With the opening of the 800-bed in a few weeks' time, we have the capacity to house all of the students that have applied so far for housing in the fall.

With regard to the women's dorms that are being closed, the 800-bed residence hall has taken up the slack for those residences.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: My question has to do with the cost, cost of closing. You don't want -- the empty buildings will still cost the University money.

VICE PRESIDENT BAKKER: Yes.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: What are the costs associated with that?

VICE PRESIDENT BAKKER: The cost associated with the closing of the buildings would be primarily to maintain the heating and air conditioning unit to prevent the development of mold in the building. That's the primary cost that would be associated with it. You're doing a feasibility study at the moment to look into how best to do those renovations.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: So if I understand you, you really don't have a figure estimate?

VICE PRESIDENT BAKKER: Oh, no, we don't have the exact costs.

TRUSTEE PERSAUD: Oh, okay. All right.
Thank you, Mr. Chair.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Mr. Chair, Montgomery.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Montgomery.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: I asked for -- there was a response from Doctor Mangum that she was not in receipt of these questions. Every member of the Board was copied on this email that was sent to her Thursday, so that's a patently false statement. It can't be true unless she didn't read the email, and maybe --

PRESIDENT MANGUM: I didn't read --

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Madam, Madam --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Just a minute.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Mr. Chair.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Just a minute, let me get order here. Finish -- go ahead and finish, Trustee Montgomery.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Thank you. If I may, Mr. Chair, thank you.

So this email was sent to Doctor Mangum on Friday. It was copied to all members of the Board. She just told the Board she wasn't aware of any of these questions; you just heard her say that. But yet and still, all of you have a copy of the email that was sent to her on Friday. So now you clearly understand what my frustration is. Either she's not reading the emails or she's not responding to them.

Every question that I asked you I just read from the emails that I sent to Doctor Mangum, and I'll just go ahead and forward them all to the Board so we know who is telling the truth here. But there is a problem, and I'm making the Board aware that these questions are not being answered, and we're being asked to proceed with approving a budget that actually started almost a month and a half ago.

A year ago I insisted on an approved budget -- well, excuse me, the last two years, I insisted that we approve a budget before the start of the fiscal year. In years past, my first year on the Board, we didn't approve the budget until almost two and a half months into the actual budget year.

So again, when I became chairman of the Budget and Finance, I insisted on an approved budget before July 1 because it doesn't make sense to start the year without an actual approved budget. We had one year, in '12 I think, where it was subject to additional information; and then last year, I think we were able to just -- to do it cleanly before July 1st.

So, again, I urge my colleagues to approve the budget, but I mean I don't have the information that I need as a member of the Budget and Finance Committee nor as the Vice Chairman of the Board that gives me the confidence moving forward that we know what we need to know. And so I'm asking -- I'm putting it out there for the Board's understanding, but I'm also asking the administration, moving forward, that they do a better job of effectively and promptly communicating when questions are asked of the administration.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Mr. Chairman, would you like me to respond, or is that necessary?

CHAIRMAN BADGER: If you choose.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: With regard to an email that was sent to me Friday, he is absolutely correct, I did not read it and have not read it yet because of my schedule, and I was out of town at a Chamber of Commerce event where I was speaking and also engaging in University work the entire weekend, so I did not read that mail.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay.
PRESIDENT MANGUM: And had I read it, I would not have had time to prepare a response for this meeting today.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: If that is considered unresponsive, I do apologize, but it is not likely to change given the timetable I was -- the questions were sent.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Well, Mr. Chair, in closing, we have a couple of hundred University employees, at least 20 or 30 people who handle or deal with budgets, at least 10 or 15 who handle communications. The President cannot be expected to do this his or herself; that's what staff is for. So to say that you would not be able -- Mr. Bakker is on the line right now, and if you ask him how many people are in the communications area, he can give you an estimate. Whoever -- your VP for communications, he knows how many people work for him.

So for the President to say that she could not provide the information, again, that's nonresponsive. These are simple questions: How many FTEs? How much money did we spend? How many staff in that particular area? These are basic questions that can be responded to.

I've also ask --

PRESIDENT MANGUM: If I had read the --

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Ma'am --

PRESIDENT MANGUM: If I had read --

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Mr. Chair, Mr. Chair, point of --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Now let me have order here

just a minute, please.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Okay.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: I didn't read --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Montgomery, will you bring it to a close?

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: I will bring it to a close.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. And --

CHAIRMAN MONTGOMERY: Doctor Mangum needs to understand the protocol for the meeting. The Board -- as a matter of fact, if necessary, we can silence her microphone, but I am speaking. I've been properly recognized and she needs to understand that.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Well, I need you to continue on your journey and bring it to a close, and then I'll ask Doctor Mangum to respond if necessary. And we have a motion that's open on the floor for --

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: Her direct -- her response to the question was that she would not have been able to provide a response.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay.

TRUSTEE MONTGOMERY: The nature of the questions are such that if we spend millions of dollars for communications activity, millions of dollars for communications employees, millions of dollars for her staff, almost -- at least half a million just in her salary and going-forth benefits, they should be able to respond to a simple request for information. This was a simple request that can easily be answered by staff who are on the phone.

So I don't buy that whole contention that she would not have been able to respond. The President is not required to do the job his or herself; they have staff for that. And that's the nature of all of these questions, and that's another reason why the questions aren't being responded. Instead of her -- we can't tell her how to do it, but the question goes even further in saying: What's the use of the staff if you can't get a question from a Board member and then pass it on to staff, get a prompt response, and then respond back to the Board member's question?

This is what's going on. It is a problem. The Board needs to be aware of it, and I'm asking very specifically: When will this problem be solved?

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Well, thank you for bringing it to the entire Board's attention.

And, Doctor Mangum, if you don't mind, will you address those with Trustee Montgomery at your earliest convenience, and he will bring them to the Board's attention, your responses?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Certainly.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Thank you.

Now there's a -- are there any other questions? Any other person or any other Board member have a reaction or response?

TRUSTEE MOORE: Mr. Chair, this is Trustee Moore.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Moore, you're recognized.

TRUSTEE MOORE: Thank you.

Just one simple question directed to President Mangum, and it's just tied to the budget. The enrollment numbers that it was built around, I believe that it's at 95 hundred. I just wanted to make sure that we have an SEM, student enrollment management plan, that will be shared with the Board coming forward. So that's just a simple question that I had.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Sure, and it's part of the annual work plan that we provided to the Board of Governors, and if we would -- if we need to go through it, we can, with individual Board members or with the Board as a whole. The projections that are developed for enrollment management are part of the five-year plan in the planning document that we submit and that's approved every year with the Board.

TRUSTEE MOORE: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay.

TRUSTEE LAWSON: Mr. Chair, this is Lawson.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Lawson.

TRUSTEE LAWSON: Yeah, I just had a comment. You know, as we move through this process, clearly we do need to approve the budget today, but I also want to just echo to the CFO and the CEO that, as we progress through the academic year, if there are needs to make revisions, particularly around recruitment, around fundraising and other areas that they, you know, please come back to us, you know, for those discussions because I think we're approving this budget with a new administration and there may be things that they learn or want to adjust over time. I just want to make sure that their hands are not tied to this plan; that if things do need to be adjusted, that we will, you know, welcome that conversation at a later date, as Doctor Mangum gets deeper into her tenure.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Thank you, Trustee Lawson.

Are there others?

(NO RESPONSE).

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Hearing none, there's a motion and a second on the floor.

TRUSTEE ALSTON: Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Alston.

TRUSTEE ALSTON: Alston, yes.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Uh-huh.

TRUSTEE ALSTON: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

An easy question, it's actually around recruitment. I think I'm going to follow up a little bit from Trustee Lawson's comment. Is there -- I guess the blueprint that we currently have for our recruitment model, are we currently expanding that? Are we staying the course as it relates to recruitment, I guess, going forward?

I know there have been many different showcases and of course stops, of course in the state and of course outside the state, just a general question around recruitment.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: And that question is to the President, am I correct?

TRUSTEE ALSTON: To the President, it could be directed to whomever is appropriate to respond.

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Chairman Badger, I'll ask the Vice President --

CHAIRMAN BADGER: The Vice President of Student Affairs is normally the person. Is he on the line?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Yes, Vice President Hudson will answer the question.

DOCTOR HUDSON: Good afternoon, Mr. Chairman and members of the Board.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Good afternoon.

DOCTOR HUDSON: Yes, we're expanding our recruitment efforts. We're looking to diversify in many areas, so we are expanding our recruitment efforts. We continue to do the recruitment activities that have been successful, such as the Atlanta area, Miami, and those other areas on the map where you saw we get the majority of our students, but we will expand that.

We're looking to increase our international population and also increase our transfer students as well.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Thank you.
Trustee Alston, did that satisfy you?

TRUSTEE ALSTON: Yes, I'm good. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Any other Board member have a question?

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Mr. Chair, this is Trustee Graham.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Trustee Graham, you're recognized.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Thank you.

Just two quick questions: One, correct me if I'm wrong, but there will be a small recruitment ceremony or reception in Mississippi, correct?

DOCTOR HUDSON: In Mississippi?

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Yes, sir.

DOCTOR HUDSON: Yes, ma'am.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: That Thursday evening?

DOCTOR HUDSON: Yes, ma'am. The reason we do it on Thursday is because of Friday night football.
And when you have seniors, they want to attend those games. So we've noted that if you have them on Friday nights or Saturday morning, you tend to not get a good reception or as many people showing up. Hosting them on Wednesdays and Thursdays produces a better turnout, specifically for our scholars that we're trying to recruit.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Okay. Also realizing that the Marching 100 is one of our big recruitment tools, why aren't they going to this game?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Permit me to respond, as we have talked with Doctor Young about the Marching 100 attending Jacksonville. The band will not be ready to travel and perform because of the timing of the game and their ability to not have practiced and be ready to perform.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Now are you talking --

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Okay.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: You're referencing
Jacksonville or Jackson State?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Jackson State.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Jackson State.

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Okay. Okay, thank you.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Okay. So Doctor Young and his staff are fully aware of this, correct?
PRESIDENT MANGUM: They made the decision with us.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Okay. Thank you.

And my last question is -- I know there was a cheerleading committee put together two weeks ago to do some research on their funding and their program. My question is: If the budget is voted on today, how do you all expect for the cheerleaders to be funded moving forward if they're not included up under athletics right now? What's the objective of the cheerleading committee?

PRESIDENT MANGUM: Budget Director Mathis is going to answer that question because she's been working with the cheerleading activity.

DIRECTOR MATHIS: The cheerleading committee, we met, but the funding I'm going to get from non-E&G; I can't take it from E&G.

They will be traveling on two other recruitment trips with Doctor Hudson, and he will be taking care of their per diem and their travel and the hotel. I have a place for their -- the games, there are only two other games that the cheerleading coach will be taking them to outside of Tallahassee, and we've taken care of the travel and the per diem and the hotel for that, so everything is taken care of. I have also taken care of the coaching staff salaries, so there is no problem.

TRUSTEE GRAHAM: Okay. Thank you.
DIRECTOR MATHIS: You’re welcome.
CHAIRMAN BADGER: Thank you.

Did I hear someone else?
(NO RESPONSE).

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Hearing none, the motion is on the floor and the second for approval of the 2014/2015 operating budget and to authorize the President to forward the approved budget on to the Board of Governors.

Those in favor of the motion, let it be known by the sign aye.

(AFFIRMATIVE INDICATIONS).

CHAIRMAN BADGER: Opposed the same sign.
(NO RESPONSE).

CHAIRMAN BADGER: The motion passes. There being nothing else to come before this Board, I declare this meeting adjourned.

And, again, I'd like to thank all of you for taking the time out to come to this with us, especially so soon after the last one.
Thank you, and have a wonderful week.
(WHEREUPON, THE MEETING WAS ADJOURNED).

NEW FAMU PRESIDENT ELMIRA MANGUM READY TO START SCHOOL YEAR
New FAMU president Elmira Mangum ready to start school year

Any day now, Elmira Mangum expects to name a new vice president for Administrative and Financial Services, filling a key position as her leadership team at Florida A&M University solidifies in time for Mangum’s first academic year, which begins on Monday.

Since taking office April 1, Mangum has hired four accomplished professionals to fill positions on her executive staff, men and women she has known to varying degrees during her career in higher education.

With the exception of Kellen Winslow, who Mangum met at a Super Bowl party in New York last February and brought in to head the university’s athletics department, there is a Cornell connection to Mangum’s hires. She had been vice president of budget and planning at the Ivy League university for four years when FAMU hired Mangum in January to be its 11th president, FAMU’s first female CEO and the first in more than half a century who did not attend Florida’s only public historically black college.

Mangum is leading FAMU at a critical time for the institution. The university is at a crossroads, having churned through six sitting or interim presidents in the past 13 years, struggling with an avalanche of negative publicity in the aftermath of the November 2011 hazing death of one of its marching band drum majors, coping with a reduction in resources as student enrollment has dropped by more than 25 percent during the past three years, and spending much of last year focused on successfully retaining full accreditation.

Now a new president is in place and her chosen members of her leadership team also have no ties to FAMU. Her new chief of staff, Shamis Abdi, earned her graduate degree at Cornell — where she met Mangum — and was director of a charter school in New York City when Mangum hired her at the end of April.

Her new special assistant, Funmi Ojetayo, was an attorney for Tompkins County, N.Y., where Cornell is located. The University of Maryland law school graduate is the only new addition to Mangum’s executive staff who she recruited prior to coming to Tallahassee.

Jimmy Miller, the new vice president for Communications and External Affairs, was hired in mid-June. He and Mangum were graduate students together at the University of Wisconsin 40 years ago, and he has spent his professional career working for state and local government agencies in New York and Connecticut. Their connection, Mangum said, was sparked by Miller’s wife, an attorney who was on the board of trustees at Cornell.

“I haven’t brought in anybody close to me for my leadership team. They are professional people who I knew in passing,” Mangum said. “I was looking for people with different skill sets who have the ability to manage with different ideas and new ideas; people you could trust to take an agenda forward.”

The new CFO who Mangum expects to name in the coming days, also will come from outside the university. She worked with an internal committee to identify four finalists and Mangum was scheduled to have dinner with the fourth candidate last week.

The only key position left to fill is provost, the vice president for academic affairs and the No. 2 leader on campus. Rodner Wright, former dean of the School of Architecture, is beginning his second school year as interim provost but he has said he never intended to have the position on a permanent basis. Mangum is working with a faculty committee to recruit a provost, and said she hopes to have that person in place before the start of the spring semester in January.

FAMU National Alumni Association President Tommy Mitchell believes there is a widespread misconception that FAMU traditionally likes to “keep it in the family.” He points to some of the university's legends, Marching 100 founder William Foster, football coach Jake Gaither and Sybil Mobley, founder of the highly regarded business school; none attended FAMU before making a mark at the institution.

"The only thing we ask is that they bring success to the table," Mitchell said. "FAMU has always been more concerned about what people bring us."

Marybeth Gasman, a higher education professor at University of Pennsylvania who is widely recognized as one of the country's foremost authorities on HBCUs, said she believes Mangum is doing exactly what needs to be done to take FAMU in a new direction.

"She's cleaning house, which is what was needed to be done and what happens at universities across the country. I think it's important for presidents to bring in people who they absolutely trust. I do not think you need to have HBCU experience to work at an HBCU," Gasman said. "I think you just have to have an appreciation for the HBCU experience and how important HBCUs are. I think it's very smart to have a cross section of various people."

Focus on students

Mangum much prefers talking about the students at FAMU than her leadership team. She has created a "customer service initiative" for students that Abdi is leading. It is designed to help students navigate sections of the university, such as the financial aid and registrar's offices that have been a source of frustration for many students.

Mangum also has established an institution-wide "efficiency and effectiveness initiative," being led by Linda Barge-Miles, who served as chief of staff under interim President Larry Robinson. The two initiatives, Mangum said, are designed to improve how the university functions.

"We're going full customer service," she said. "The students should see a change in the behavior at the offices they interact with."

Mangum earned her undergraduate degree at North Carolina Central University, an HBCU in Durham, her hometown. Coming back to an HBCU, so to speak, has given Mangum a greater appreciation for the important role they play, particularly for students who come from what she calls "low-wealth" households.

"I would say I have a better understanding and I'm learning more about the university and the importance of FAMU to historical black colleges in particular," she said.

The university's long-standing commitment to providing opportunities for students who weren't finding them elsewhere is critical, Mangum said, especially for the state of Florida.
“Without the commitment to low-wealth students, they’re gong to get lost,” she said. “It’s essential that we continue to keep these doors open, that we continue to keep these opportunities available.”

With the dramatic drop in enrollment, from about 13,300 in August 2011 to an estimated 9,500 this fall, Mangum said it is important that the university take a new approach to preparing its budget so it can properly adjust to reductions in revenue as a result of fewer students paying tuition. The decline in enrollment has been attributed to a variety of factors, particularly changes by the federal government for obtaining and retaining Pell grants and student PLUS loans. The university has also drastically reduced the number of “profile admits,” or students who did not meet minimum state standards for enrollment.

Mangum believes a new approach to budgeting will make it easier for the institution to adjust to changes in enrollment.

“I think (the budget) just needs some organization around it, more structure and some controls,” she said. “It was less systematic in approach than I would have liked.”

A challenging trustee

Presidents at public HBCUs have at times found their greatest challenge to be the board of trustees, the same men and women who hired them. At Alabama State in nearby Montgomery, Gwendolyn Boyd’s high-profile, ongoing dispute with several trustees has prompted that state’s governor to intervene. Tallahassee native George Cooper, who gave the commencement address at FAMU’s summer graduation, was fired by South Carolina State in 2010, rehired in less than a month by the same board and then fired again two years later.

Solomon Badger, chairman of the FAMU board that chose Mangum with an 11-2 vote in January, is convinced that Florida A&M hired exactly who it needed when it selected Mangum.

“I think she has a lot to offer. I think she gives 100 percent. I think she brings all the tools to move the university in the direction it should go,” Badger said. “As time has progressed, I see her as an excellent hire.”

However, FAMU’s trustees had a difficult time agreeing on a contract with Mangum. The protracted conference calls involving board members and FAMU’s chief legal counsel were at times contentious.

Mangum got a taste of just how ugly things can get on what should have been a routine conference call on Aug. 11, to approve the university’s final budget in order to submit it to the Board of Governors.

Trustee Rufus Montgomery, an Atlanta-based lobbyist, insisted that other matters be addressed before a vote on the budget. Among other things, he was incensed that Mangum had not responded to an email he sent three days earlier; she had spent that weekend at the annual Chamber Conference in Amelia Island.

When Mangum attempted to explain, Montgomery, his voice rising, said he should not be interrupted and went so far as to announce that Mangum’s microphone could be silenced.

Two days later, Mangum told the Democrat she felt “bullied” during the call. She said she was bothered by the lack of respect for the university’s president.

“It is a new experience. I have worked with boards of trustees for a number of years,” she said. “I think by and large this group is a good group to work with. You have exceptions who define themselves by being exceptions. Most boards have the best interests of the institution at heart.”

Reminded that Montgomery is closely affiliated with Gov. Rick Scott, who appointed him to FAMU’s board, Mangum responded: “What does that say about the people that appointed him?”

Gasman, at University of Pennsylvania, is on the board at Paul Quinn College, a private HBCU in Dallas. She is keenly aware of the situation at Alabama State, and is following developments at Tennessee State and FAMU, which all have black women presidents. The lack of respect that some male trustees show is blatant sexism, Gasman said.

“The history of black colleges is a history of black men. Women have been kind of swept away in terms of the history of black colleges,” Gasman said. “You’re seeing a number of women coming into these roles, and they’re pretty powerful women. Guess what? That doesn’t sit well with all men. I think a lot of this reeks of sexism.”

Community connector

Mangum gets visibly excited when talking about her upcoming inauguration, which takes place Oct. 3 on Founders’ Day. A gala that night will be the culmination of a weeklong series of events.

If she had her way, every citizen in Leon County and the surrounding region would find his or her way to Florida A&M University’s campus at some point that week.

The events kick off the preceding Sunday afternoon, with a 5K run (or walk) from FAMU to Cascades Park, followed by a free concert. Mangum is a big fan of the new city park not far from the president’s house, and has enjoyed attending the 8 p.m. water symphonies.

Alas, Mangum is afraid that far too many people in greater Tallahassee have never set foot on the university’s campus — and many aren’t even sure where FAMU is. She heard that time and again during the three-day Chamber Conference earlier this month, much to her surprise.
Mangum is determined to change that. She wants local business owners to be keenly aware of how much FAMU students, faculty and staff contribute to the local economy. She is eager to establish relationships with as many companies in town as possible.

Mangum also believes FAMU needs to do a better job of promoting itself, including a prominent sign or monument on South Adams for motorists coming into the city.

“There’s nothing that says you’re passing FAMU when you come north on Adams Street. It looks like another strip that went bad,” Mangum said. “What is the reason they are going to come over here? Those are things that we see that we can develop, and we will in time.”

Mangum was very visible at the Chamber Conference, meeting key community leaders who had yet to make her acquaintance during her first four months in Tallahassee. This Tuesday, Mangum is the featured speaker at a Network of Entrepreneurs & Business Advocates luncheon.

Sue Dick, president and CEO of the chamber, said she talks frequently with Mangum and Abdi, Mangum’s chief of staff.

“(Mangum) wants to be a part of the community and to communicate what the priorities are for the campus,” Dick said. “We’re trying to do whatever we can to support our higher ed institutions. People are very much impressed with her and her team.”

Mangum hopes so. She’s already presided over three commencement ceremonies, two in May and one this month. She said she is looking forward to many more.

BAND, FOOTBALL TOPICS AT QB CLUB'S LUNCH WITH MANGUM

The first appearance that FAMU's Marching 100 will make this season is already costing the school's athletic department and it won't participate at Tennessee State's homecoming unless the band's trip is paid in part by TSU.

FAMU president Elmira Mangum vehemently told the 220 Quarterback Club, a FAMU support organization, on Monday that she wants a share of the revenues from the TSU game for the band to show up. Mangum spoke to the club at the University Club House on FAMU's campus.

She said she's unsuccessfully tried for about three weeks to negotiate her demand, estimating that TSU will make about $80,000 from the game.
"I need a whole lot of things before I let the band go to Tennessee State," Mangum said. "So, that's my position on it."

The band will perform in South Florida when FAMU plays the University of Miami on Sept. 6. That comes with a cost of about $13,000 for the seats that band members will occupy at Sun Life Stadium, said athletics director Kellen Winslow, who was not too pleased with the way the contract was negotiated to include the band.

Winslow didn't negotiate that contract. FAMU will make just over $700,000 for playing the Hurricanes, Winslow said.

In addition to Miami, the band will travel to North Carolina to face A&T on Oct. 25 and Bethune-Cookman on Nov. 22 in the Florida Classic in Orlando. It wasn't immediately known if A&T will pay for the band, but the Classic is jointly promoted by FAMU and B-CU.

Football was front and center when Mangum made her initial remarks. She said the program deserves better facilities, but if that is to happen football can't be expected to pay the way for every other sport.

"I don't know a whole lot about sports, but I do know that sometimes the weight can be too heavy," she said. "In this case, financially it's too heavy for one sport to be carrying."

Mangum and Winslow have made digging out of a $7 million athletic department budget deficit their mission. Meeting with the 220 Quarterback Club gave them another platform to make their appeal for financial support.

Just three weeks ago, they held a town meeting to get feedback on how to raise money to help with the possible reinstatement of men's tennis and golf. Both sports were suspended in a cost-cutting move.

Responding to a question about getting the budget in line, Mangum stuck to the basics.

"In a nutshell, we borrowed money from ourselves that we have used as leverage for some other debts," she said. "We need to pay it back so that the other debts can be paid with the money that belongs to that place. It's a balancing act."

The club responded by presenting a check of $5,500 to athletics, with specific earmarks. The check included the cost of three flat-screen televisions to be installed in the football locker room.

The weekly meeting, which was moved to Monday from its usual Wednesday to accommodate Mangum's schedule, had the feeling of a town hall meeting. This audience, however, was far less emotional than the recent gathering at Lee Hall.
One of the other cuts in athletics is the cost of travel for the football team this season. The Rattlers will bus to the season-opener Saturday against Jackson State in Mississippi, as well as the game in Miami and the TSU game in Nashville. Driving to this weekend's game will save about $40,000, Winslow said.

"If we had the money we would do it," he said. "But we just don't have the funds right now."

On an academics-related matter, Mangum was asked if she considered former president Frederick Humphries' willingness to help with recruiting at FAMU. She said she's given it some thought, but had reservations.

"I thought about it, then I went back to my same answer; these are new students," she said. "This is their type of world; we need high-impact recruiting. I'm not sure Dr. Humphries is able to do that kind of high-impact recruiting that you do when you're talking to students who get their information off Twitter, YouTube and the Internet."

TSU WANTS FAMU BAND IN TIGERS’ HOMECOMING
TSU wants FAMU band in Tigers' homecoming

Tennessee State University has put three offers on the table in an attempt to have FAMU's Marching 100 band perform at the Tigers' homecoming game against FAMU on Sept. 27 in Nashville.

Terms of the proposals were outlined in a letter TSU president Glenda Baskin Glover sent to the Tallahassee Democrat. Baskin Glover sent the letter in response to a story in the Tallahassee Democrat in which FAMU president Elmira Mangum said she has been negotiating unsuccessfully for several weeks to get an agreement to "share the cost" of the band's trip.

The letter was sent to Mangum on Tuesday, according to Kelli Sharpe, who handles public relations for TSU.

Transporting the band will cost $60,000, according to the TSU letter.

Mangum made her comments after she was asked Monday at the 220 Quarterback Club's luncheon meeting whether the band would be traveling to TSU.

"I need a whole lot of things before I let the band go to Tennessee State," Mangum said. "So, that's my position on it."

Baskin Glover's letter said she understood FAMU's financial hardship because her university faced a similar situation when it brought its band to Tallahassee last year.

"We extended two offers to you to assist with FAMU band travel. These were: (1) TSU would pay the $60,000 cost for the FAMU band to travel to TSU this year, and FAMU would, in return, pay the same amount for the TSU band to travel to FAMU next year; or (2) TSU would extend a loan to FAMU in the amount of $30,000 to be paid back over the course of the 2014-2015 academic year.

"You declined both offers. Instead, you made an absolutely one-sided offer and stated that FAMU could not afford to come to TSU, and that TSU had to pay all expenses for FAMU to travel to Nashville this year. You further stated that even if TSU paid the expenses this year, FAMU could not reciprocate and pay for TSU to travel to Tallahassee next year."

Next year's game will be the last in a four-game contract between the two programs, whose longtime rivalry began in 1944.

Baskin Glover said that she would like to continue talks about the possibility of the band making the trip, offering a third proposal.
"We are renewing our above offers, and we are further prepared to discuss other revenue options including TSU and FAMU sharing in the net proceeds this year at 60 percent-40 percent, respectively. In 2015, the percentage would be the same when TSU travels to Tallahassee with FAMU receiving 60 percent and TSU receiving 40 percent."

The Tigers play at LP Field, which has a capacity of nearly 69,000 spectators; FAMU's Bragg Stadium seats 25,000.

Mangum did not comment on the letter because she hasn't read it, said Jimmy Miller, vice president of communication and external relations for FAMU.

In response to the Democrat's request for comments, Miller said, "The president is on the road since (Wednesday) afternoon doing the business of the university.

"At the time of her departure she had not had a chance to read the letter. So she is not in a position to comment on a letter she has not had a chance to read. She is in meetings all day (Thursday)."

The Marching 100 will perform when the Rattlers play the University of Miami on Sept. 6; at North Carolina A&T on Oct. 25; and at the Florida Classic on Nov. 22.
SEPTEMBER 15, 2014

LETTER FROM
MR. TOMMY MITCHELL SR. TO
MR. KELLEN WINSLOW
September 15, 2014

Mr. Kellen Winslow
Director of Athletics
Florida A&M University
Tallahassee, Florida 32301

Dear Mr. Winslow,

I’m writing this letter to say that your verbal confrontation with me on Saturday, August 30th, in the lobby at the Marriott Hotel in Jackson Mississippi, was inappropriate, disrespectful and very unprofessional.

You approached me while I was with a group of rattlers discussing among others things, the Marching 100 possibly performing at the FAMU-Tennessee game. You wanted to know: “the status of my proposal to FNAA for approximately $37,000 for banners around Bragg Stadium and a twelve (12) seat press box for home games”. I informed you that “the FNAA Executive Board had referred the request to our budget committee”. You then wanted to know: “the reason for that decision” and I informed you “that decision was necessary to determine if funds were available if we agreed to support your request”. You seemed disappointed and wanted to know: “if maybe I should move on”, I assumed, to some other option. I hesitated but eventually said: “that was your choice;” You then proceeded to accuse me of having made some request of you and that I was “bad mouthing” you and “writing letters about” you. I indicated that “I had not requested anything of you and that I was not going to continue to stand in your presence and allow you to lecture me regarding your disapproval of my behavior.” Someone came between us and I walked away.

While I can accept the fact that you disapprove of the letter sent to President Elmira Mangum from the FAMU National Alumni Association (FNAA) and the National Rattler “F” Club and whatever else you were told that had been said about you, your response in the hotel lobby with several FAMU fans present was totally unacceptable. I would have gladly walked away and had a private conversation with you regarding anything you may have desired to talk about. But you preferred to confront me in the presence of others, just as I was informed that you confronted my First Vice President, Greg Clark, about the proposal.
As for the letter that was written to President Mangum, that was a decision made by the FAMU National Alumni Association Executive Board as well as the board of the National Rattler "F" Club. The letter was written as a result of numerous complaints both organizations received from alumni and supporters regarding decisions you made as well as negative statements attributed to you in the press. After much discussion regarding the numerous complaints we were receiving regarding your actions as well as your condescending attitude, a letter was drafted for approval to be sent to President Mangum. The letter was sent for some of the following reasons:

- Your acclamation in the Tallahassee Democrat that “the FAMU Athletic program is broken and cannot be fixed. It needs to be torn down and start over” in spite of the fact that the volleyball team, the female basketball team, the baseball team and the tennis team successfully defeated Division I schools like Florida, Alabama, Navy, and other major programs during the 2013-14 school year. The female softball won the MEAC and like the volleyball team, has at least 10 MEAC championships. The male and female track teams have cross country championships. The female track coach (Darlene Moore) was nominated for HBCU Track Coach of the Year. The tennis team that you suspended was the only program on campus that was ranked nationally. However, the one athlete that was primarily responsible for our national ranking has now enrolled at another institution because of the suspension.

- Remarks attributed to you that appeared in the Tallahassee Democrat and Fox News that “African Americans forefathers made a mistake by designating black Colleges as HBCUs. Black colleges should focus on being great Universities rather than HBCUs”. That statement implied that HBCUs cannot be great. HBCUs are factually and appropriately designated as historically and predominantly black colleges just as most major colleges are historically and predominantly white. Today, statistics still indicate that the best education of African American students continues to occur on the campuses of HBCUs. One of the reason the National Alumni Association endorsed President Mangum was because of her acknowledged commitment to HBCUs. We feel very strongly that all employees, students and alumni of HBCUs should be committed and supportive of HBCUs.

- The elimination of the golf team and the nationally ranked tennis team as well as eliminating two football positions without informing and allowing constituents to have input and/or contribute enough funds to save programs as is already the case with golf. I have also participated in a discussion with a group representing a variety of organizations that want to kick off a campaign by Homecoming 2014 to raise one million dollars by Homecoming 2015. This proposal has been presented to Dr. Thomas Haynes to present to Dr. Magnum for her endorsement.

- Allegations by individuals present at a meeting where you indicated /implied that ‘you welcome different opinions to your vision but you really did not care what anyone thought; you have total control, as you requested prior to accepting the position’.
Your decision to not retain Keith Miles as an announcer of the Rattler Football games. Keith Miles has been an outstanding announcer of the Rattler Football games for thirty (30) years and has tremendous support in this community. Calls have come from all over the country complaining about that decision.

Your actions and decisions since hired as Athletic Director, seems to indicate that you have very little respect for FAMU, its rich history and current employees including the current coaches. To be here in such a short time and begin making major decisions without consulting anyone or allowing supporters to have input is unwise. You cannot disrespect a constituent and expect them to support you. Fund raisers know that “friend raising” comes first. For you to ask an organization to give you approximately $85,000 and then disrespect its president in the presence of alumni and supporters, was not a wise decision.

The FAMU National Alumni Association has a long and distinguished history of advocacy, recruitment of students and financial support of Florida A&M University. The mission of the Association and its membership is to enhance and support the continued existence of our alma mater as one of this nation’s great institutions of higher learning, by any reasonable means necessary. We take “issue” with anyone that will say or do anything that discredits or defame the image of FAMU or any HBCU.

Anyone associated with FAMU, in any capacity, should become aware of and cherish its rich history and pay homage to that history by being a positive advocate and public spokesman.

Finally, I hope that we can find a way to work together for the common good in the future.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Tommy Mitchell Sr., President
Florida A&M University
National Alumni Association
Dear Members of the Florida A&M University Board of Trustees,

I am John Michael Lee, Jr, and I am a 2003 FAMU graduate from the FAMU-FSU College of Engineering in Computer Engineering; a life member of the FAMU National Alumni Association, a member of the FAMU Marching 100 Alumni Band Association, the treasurer of the Washington, DC Chapter of the FAMU National Alumni Association and a lifetime donor to Florida A&M University. I also serve as the Vice President for the Office for Access and Success at the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. In this role, I support each of the nation’s 19 historically Black land-grant institutions including FAMU.

The purpose of this letter is to express my disappointment with the no-confidence vote taken by the Florida A&M University Board of Trustees’ newly formed Athletics Oversight Committee and to inform you of the potential Southern Association of Colleges and Schools violations that could result from passing a policy to have FAMU BOT members appointed to an athletic search committee.

On Friday, November 8, 2014, the Florida A&M University Board of Trustees’ Athletics Oversight Committee held a public conference-call to discuss FAMU athletics. During this meeting, the sub-committee passed a ceremonial vote of no-confidence for FAMU athletic director Kellen Winslow. Much of this stems from the firing of former Florida A&M University Head Football Coach, Earl Holmes, during the week of homecoming.

While I understand the point-of-view that the firing of Earl Holmes during homecoming was done outside of the normal “tradition” of the university, I believe that the ultimate decision to sever ties with coach Holmes- the first coach in the 127-year history of FAMU to start the football season 0-5 and lead the team to an all-time low football attendance for the university- was the right decision despite the timing. “Tradition” cannot and should not trump progress for FAMU.

President Mangum and Athletic Director Winslow has put together a stellar, first-class search committee made up of diverse FAMU (and non-FAMU) constituents and I would dare say that this is the best and most high-profile committee to be assembled at any HBCU. The process is moving forward to find the next football coach of Florida A&M University and Mr. Winslow is implementing a plan to ensure that FAMU Football returns back to the prominence it once held in HBCU football. While the action was not done in the way that some people believe it should have been done, I believe the outcome would have ultimately been the same for Coach Holmes.

I believe that those who have an issue with any decision made by the current administration of FAMU should follow the “traditional” protocol of addressing those issues with the FAMU President, Dr. Elmira Mangum. I believe that the FAMU BOT Athletic Oversight Committee’s decision to issue a vote of no-confidence to athletic director Kellen Winslow- who reports directly to FAMU President Dr. Elmira Mangum- is simply “petty politics” meant to circumvent the president’s oversight of athletics. Further, this single action created national, negative press that is not in the best interest of moving FAMU forward. This type of action by HBCU governing boards creates negative press for our institutions, and has the potential to permanently tarnish the image of HBCUs. FAMU has had enough negative press in the last 3-years (hazing death, decline in enrollment, resignation of presidents, SACS Probation, etc.), and the university does not need any more bad press that will further tarnish its brand.

The FAMU BOT Athletic Oversight Committee’s decision to issue a vote of no-confidence is not in the best interest of FAMU. I question the intentions of a committee that would make such a frivolous decision with the future of FAMU at stake. I would like to see that energy channeled into things such as ensuring the future of the FAMU-FSU College of Engineering. It is interesting that no trustee made public statements to oppose this move by the Florida legislature and that no committee was formed for the purpose of ensuring that current and future FAMU students continue to have access to engineering and other STEM fields that are vital to the State of Florida and national economy.

More troubling is the fact that the committee also voted to recommend that the full FAMU Board of Trustees pass a policy requiring two trustees be appointed to the search committee for the new head football coach. I would like to caution the board against creating such a policy as it can lead to sanctions by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools similar to other HBCUs such as Alabama State University and South Carolina State University.

Statutes

By Florida Statute, the FAMU Board of Trustees is only charged with the hiring of the President of the University who ultimately serves as the chief operating officer of the university responsible for all administrative decisions. Trustees serve on the search committee to choose the FAMU president and ultimately vote to hire that president. Trustees do not sit on search committees for the head coach or any other open position at FAMU.

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' (SACS) Principles of Accreditation: Foundations for Quality Enhancement specifically states the following under SACS Principle 3.2.2:

Legal authority and operating control of the institution are clearly defined for the following areas within the institution's governance structure: (Governance board control)

3.2.2.1 institution's mission;
3.2.2.2 fiscal stability of the institution; and 3.2.2.3 institutional policy.

This means that university board of trustees should be focused in these above three areas and should not be involved in administrative-level issues.

Further, SACS Principle 3.2.6 states:

There is a clear and appropriate distinction, in writing and practice, between the policy-making functions of the governing board and the responsibility of the administration and faculty to administer and implement policy. (Board/administration distinction)

SACS Principle 3.2.7 also states:

The institution has a clearly defined and published organizational structure that delineates responsibility for the administration of policies. (Organizational structure)

Together these statutes mean that the function and responsibilities of the board should be distinct and separate from the administrative functions executed by the university president. The accreditation principles by SACS clearly define the relationship between a board and the university administration.

However, SACS Principle 3.2.11 specifically states the following specifically related to athletics:

The institution's chief executive officer has ultimate responsibility for, and exercises appropriate administrative and fiscal control over, the institution's intercollegiate athletics program. (Control of intercollegiate athletics)
SACS Principle 3.2.11 makes it clear and leaves no doubt that athletics at FAMU should solely be managed by the university president, Dr. Elmina Mangum, and should have no influence from the FAMU Board of Trustees or individual members. These statutes spell out the special relationship between the FAMU Board of Trustees and the President.

In my professional opinion, a vote to include FAMU BOT Members on the search committee for the head coach- or any other administrator or employee at FAMU other than the president-would be a violation of SACS accreditation standards and would lead to sanctions by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. This action could also lead to NCAA violations as well.

I urge the full FAMU Board of Trustees to vote down the proposal from the Athletics Oversight Committee, as this action could have catastrophic consequences for FAMU. I also urge the board not to take the unnecessary action of issuing any further public votes of no-confidence that continues to bring negative national press coverage to Florida A&M University. The university cannot survive with in-fighting and divisiveness among trustees and administrators.

In the future, I would also like to suggest that the FAMU BOT and the FAMU President consider engaging in a leadership retreat process facilitated by the Association of Governing Boards (AGB). An AGB consultant can be reached by e-mail at consulting@agb.org or by phone at 202-776-0824. AGB Consulting is a source for experts on advancing the work of your board. They provide individualized solutions for board members and campus leaders to respond to governance challenges and to successfully lead higher education systems, institutions, and affiliated foundations. The consultants match AGB members with experts in board governance, resulting in high-quality and meaningful outcomes by combining tested ideas and cutting-edge practices.

Additionally, I am always here to help in any way that I can. I can be reached by email at JohnLee1906@gmail.com or by phone at 202-321-6612.

All,

I contacted the President of the SACSCCC regarding accreditation issues and the appointment of Trustees to the advisory committee informing the search for the Head football coach at FAMU. While it will be seen by SACSCCC as inappropriate to appointment BOT members to the committee, it is within the regulation to appointment BOT members as ex-officio (non-voting) members. Based upon this clarification I welcome the appointment and participation of ex-officio members to the search process for the football coach. This status protects the university from the appearance of violating section 3.2.6, and will avoid another probation or action from SACSCCC.

Thank you. I am available to discuss details if you like.

LETTER FROM
REV. ERNEST FERRELL TO
DR. ELMIRA MANGUM

MAY 25, 2015
May 25, 2015

Dr. Elmira Mangum, President
Florida A&M University
Lee Hall Auditorium
1601 Dr. Martin Luther King Boulevard
Tallahassee, Florida 32307

Dear President Mangum:

The Tallahassee Urban League (TUL) Board of Directors met on April 21, 2015 for its monthly board meeting. One of the items discussed was your e-mail response from our meeting with Mr. Funmi Ojetayo, Special Assistant and Counsel to the President. The board was extremely disappointed with your response to the agreements that you made with the Tallahassee Urban League last year. From our meeting it was apparent that you had pre-determined your conclusion before the meeting ever started. Your decision was that Florida A&M University (FAMU) nor you would be supporting the Tallahassee Urban League in any of the agreed upon support in our meeting from last year. This action by you was a devastating blow to the Tallahassee Urban League’s preparation and plans that were already in progress. The event program invitations and other printed materials were completed at a major cost to the agency. We had no reason to believe you would not honor your word.

In addition to you not keeping your word, you totally disrespected Mrs. Maggie Lewis Butler, Board of Directors Chairman, Mr. Curtis Taylor, TUL Vice President, and me by not valuing our time and honoring the meeting that you had confirmed with your staff. I was personally offended by your lack of consideration for us when you did not come out and apologize for not meeting with us, nor did you call later to explain or ask to reschedule the meeting at a later date and time.

To add insult to injury, no one from your staff informed us that you would not be meeting with us. After thirty (30) minutes of waiting, your special assistant, after apparently consulting with you on the phone while we waited and waited finally informed us that he would be meeting with us. He offered no apology on your behalf. He had no information regarding the nature of our meeting, nor had he read the e-mail that was sent prior to our meeting. He went through the motions, but the end result had already been determined by you. The meeting proved to be a complete waste of our valuable time.

I want to remind you of what you agreed to do last year and what you would do for the Tallahassee Urban League:
1. You agreed that you and Florida A&M University would support the Tallahassee Urban League's Annual Dinner Meeting and Gala. You also agreed that the gala would continue being held at the Alfred Lawson, Jr. Multi-Purpose Training Gymnasium through a mutual trade-off arrangement. FAMU would trade-off usage fees and the Urban League would trade-off equal value with a Platinum Sponsorship.

2. You agreed that Florida A&M University would support the Tallahassee Urban League’s Annual Member Campaign by visiting the Tallahassee Urban League Office on a special day set aside for FAMU, FSU, and TCC. You also agreed that you would encourage the university constituents to become members of the Tallahassee Urban League. To confirm your support, you paid your Century Membership dues and said you support the National Urban League’s goal and mission as well as the local affiliate. Many of those goals reflect what you wanted FAMU to mirror from your administration. You further agreed that you would continue supporting FAMU Day by bringing a delegation of faculty, staff, and students with you to the luncheon on FAMU Day.

3. You agreed that you would appoint a representative from FAMU to serve on the Tallahassee Urban League Board of Directors.

In your e-mail response to the Tallahassee Urban League’s request, not only did you reverse all of your positions, but you added a response for which we did not ask. You completely closed all of the doors on supporting the Tallahassee Urban League by informing us that the university would only support United Way of which the Tallahassee Urban League is not a member.

Finally President Mangum, when you refused to meet with us, you also refused to meet with twenty-three (23) other Tallahassee Urban League board members some of which you are familiar including, Representative Alan Williams, Senator Bill Montford, Attorney Daryl Parks, Former Senator Alfred Lawson, Jr., Joe Bullard; and several retired faculty members from FAMU; and the remaining board members who have equal strength and value. Additionally, more than thirty thousand families and individuals who are a part of our community partnership network and forty-six years of providing services to this community have been affected by your refusal to meet with us. We are not alone.

Please know that we recognize the importance of FAMU maintaining a strong support link with the community it serves. We also recognize that it is essential that FAMU has the community’s support considering the struggles HBCU’s are having across the country. We want to be that vital link of support to FAMU; but you have closed the door without any conversation or dialogue with the Urban League. Please help me understand your reasoning. Your representative did provide one explanation as to why you would not support writing off the usage of the Alfred Lawson, Jr. Multi-Purpose Training Center. He said you did not have the funds in your budget. If that is the case, we certainly understand, but those other agreements you made and refused to support, make it hard to believe that a budget issue was the real foundation.
In the meantime on behalf of the thousands of families and individuals who depend on our services daily, we are asking that you reconsider your decision to not support the Tallahassee Urban League. I am committed to work with you to find a common ground of support that I believe will be mutually beneficial to both the Urban League and FAMU. It has worked for forty-six (46) years and together it will work again.

We have a mutual interest in FAMU and would like to work with you if we can. However, we recognize that FAMU is much bigger than you or me and with the help of loyal FAMU supporters we will find a way to implement the agreements that we mutually agreed upon. We would rather work with you, if we can. I am available to meet with you. You may reach me at (850) 222-6111 office, (850) 510-0958 cell phone, or (850) 576-0020 home. As soon as we are able to adjust our schedules for a time we can meet together, I am available and anxious to meet with you. I look forward to hearing from you, and my prayer is that the Lord will bless you and your administration to be successful in leading our great university.

Appreciatively,

Ernest Ferrell

Subject: Re: President Mangum Letters of Support - Request

Dear FAMU National Alumni Association Executive Board and NAA Chapter Presidents,

I would like to clarify the email that was sent out earlier on my behalf. I am requesting one letter of support for Dr. Mangum from Tommy Mitchell, President FAMU NAA, on behalf of the entire FAMU National Alumni Association. Separately, I am requesting letters of support for Dr. Mangum from each FAMU NAA Chapter President on behalf of their chapters. I would like to have these letters sent directly to me at John.Lee@famu.edu. I apologize for the short notice, but the deadline is a hard deadline due to the pending Board of Trustees Meeting that is forthcoming in the next few weeks. If you have any questions, please direct all questions regarding this request to me by email or on my cell at 850-264-3347.

The purpose of the letters is to solicit alumni feedback on President Mangum's first year at the helm of Florida A&M University. Dr. Mangum is the 11th and first permanent female President of Florida A&M University. April 1, 2015 marked her first year anniversary as the President of FAMU.

Dr. Mangum has set the university on a course to be a "best-in-class land-grant, doctoral research, student-centered university that serves African-Americans and low-wealth students with an international presence." FAMU is the number 1 publicly ranked black University in America, and was named on the U.S. News and World Report list of Top 10 Best HBCUs and one of the best National Universities. FAMU was also named a 'Best in the Southeast College' by the Princeton Review for 2014.

We are simply seeking letters of support from the NAA as Dr. Mangum moves toward her first Presidential evaluation by the FAMU Board of Trustees and the Florida Board of Governors. Please note that this is a request and is not mandatory in any way. FAMU NAA President, Tommy Mitchell, will be in touch with you regarding any conference call-in information through a separate e-mail communication. Please feel free to submit letters of support only if you wish to do so. Thank you very much for all that you do on behalf of FAMU.

Sincerely,

Greetings NAA Leadership:

Alumni Affairs Assistant Vice President, Dr. John Lee has asked that we reach out to all of our NAA Chapter Presidents to solicit letters of support for Dr. Elmira Mangum and the outstanding work that she is doing at FAMU. We are told these letters will be used in the President's annual review. Dr. Lee kindly asks that all letters be submitted via email by Friday, May 29, 2015 to our office. While this is a pending request of our chapter leadership, NAA President Tommy Mitchell has informed OAA that he plans to host a conference call regarding this request. Coordinates for the call are forthcoming and will be disseminated to the executive board when our office is advised of that call in information.

Should you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact me.

Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University
Investigation Report
Kellen Winslow Leave Use

Introduction

The Division of Audit and Compliance (DAC) provides investigative services to all entities of the University, including schools, colleges, administrative departments, auxiliary enterprises, and support organizations. DAC has a responsibility to conduct, supervise, and coordinate investigations designed to detect, deter, prevent, and eradicate fraud, waste, misconduct, mismanagement, and other abuses within the University.

Allegation

A complaint was made to the Governor's Inspector General that alleged Mr. Winslow was compensated for unearned leave while being on vacation after his April 2014 appointment as FAMU's athletic director. The Governor's Inspector General referred the matter to the University's Division of Audit and Compliance for review and action as deemed appropriate. No additional information was provided in the complaint. The complainant did not provide contact information; accordingly, we were unable to contact him/her to obtain additional information.

Objectives and Methodology

The objective of this investigation was to determine if, after his appointment as Athletic Director, Kellen Winslow took leave for time when he was not conducting university business during April and May 2014. The following procedures were performed to accomplish the investigation objectives:

- Reviewed the employment contract to determine the effective start date;
- Reviewed the pay summary to determine the initial pay period;
- Reviewed Board of Trustees Policy Number 2005-23 Benefits and Leaves;
- Reviewed leave records and supporting leave requests to determine the dates and hours for which approved leave was taken;
- Reviewed travel records for approved travel to establish Mr. Winslow was conducting University-related activities on those dates;
- Reviewed Mr. Winslow's outlook calendar provided by EIT for indication that Mr. Winslow was performing university-related duties on those dates;
- Reviewed emails provided by EIT for documentation that Mr. Winslow was performing university-related duties. We reviewed both e-mails sent and received from Mr. Winslow's e-mail account for April and May 2014;
- Requested and reviewed documentation from Mr. Winslow that would substantiate performance of university-related duties; and
- Inquired of University personnel as to knowledge of Mr. Winslow's start date, work schedule and University-related work activities.

Investigative Results

Section 1(a) of Board of Trustees Policy Number 2005-23 provides that benefits made available to University employees include paid and unpaid leave. Section 1(b) of this policy provides that employees are expected to work the number of hours in the employee's work
Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University
Investigation Report

week unless on approved leave and Section 5 requires that employees report all leave taken during the pay period in which the leave was used. Section 8(a) of this policy requires that annual leave shall be accrued prior to use.

Mr. Winslow’s employment contract provided that his effective start date was April 14, 2014. Based on the above procedures performed, Mr. Winslow’s University-related work activities could not be documented for 16 work days during the time period from the April 14, 2014 start date through May 31, 2014. Mr. Winslow did not have approved leave for any of these days. Since leave was used prior to being earned, the Board of Trustees Policy Number 2005-23 was not complied with and Mr. Winslow was compensated for leave which was not earned at the time the leave was taken.

Although Mr. Winslow worked on University-related business for three days prior to the April 14, 2014 start date, the University does not have a policy that allows for earning leave prior to the start date. Mr. Winslow has not been given credit for the hours worked prior to April 14, 2014.

Conclusion and Recommendation

The allegation is substantiated. Leave accrued through termination of employment totaled 161 hours. Ten hours of Leave was approved, leaving 151 hours for payout. We recommend that 128 hours (the hours for the 16 days in which leave was taken but not authorized), be deducted from Mr. Winslow’s leave payout.

The investigation was conducted in compliance with the standards found in the Principles and Standards for Offices of Inspector General, published by the Association of Inspectors General.

The Investigation was conducted by Richard Givens.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Division of Audit and Compliance Audit Charter, I have directed that this report be prepared to present the results of our investigation.

FAMU BOT REGULATION 10.105

(1) Generally.
(a) The Office of Human Resources (Human Resources) is responsible for the recruitment, examination, screening and selection for referral of all applicants for positions with the University. Human Resources shall make available to departments or units only those applicants who appear to meet the minimum qualifications for a vacancy and any special qualifications specific to the vacant position as outlined by the hiring department or unit. Educational qualifications and credentials, work experience, background check, fingerprinting and references must be verified as part of the job offering.

(b) Any person providing false or misleading information in order to meet the qualifications for a position shall be immediately dismissed for the position, if the person has been hired; or, the person shall be disqualified from any further consideration for the position in question.

(c) The President, or the President’s designee, shall establish sanctions for the willful falsifications or willful nondisclosures related to job qualifications or responsibilities. The discipline imposed shall be based upon the circumstances.

(2) Announcement of Vacant Positions.
Human Resources will review and authorize job vacancy announcements and distribute such announcements to reach as diverse an applicant group as possible in accordance with all University policies.

(a) The University will announce all Faculty, A&P and USPS position vacancies for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days. The President, or the President’s designee, will determine which positions have special advertising requirements to meet the University Affirmative Action Plan or Equity Accountability Plan. The University President or designee may waive the announcement of a position when a waiver is in the best interest of the University.

(b) All applicants must meet the minimum qualifications listed in the University's class specifications and the additional competencies required for the specific position, unless a waiver has been requested and approved by the Office of Human Resources. The applicant must have education, training, and experience deemed to be equivalent and appropriate for a waiver to be approved. The applicant must also meet any occupational requirements or special qualifications established for the position. The University will determine the required level of education, training, and experience appropriate for a specific position.

(c) An applicant's consideration will be discontinued when it is determined that the applicant does not meet the minimum requirements, has falsified or failed to complete an application accurately, has an unsatisfactory employment record, has a criminal history related to the position for which the applicant has applied, or which may jeopardize the safety of students, faculty, staff, or the safekeeping of confidential records and university accounts.

(d) Any person who has been convicted of a felony involving the sale of or trafficking in, or conspiracy to sell or traffic in, a controlled substance as described in Chapter 893, F.S., is disqualified from employment unless conditions outlined in Section 775.16, F.S., are met. Failure to disclose such conviction is cause for dismissal.

(e) Employees hired into positions requiring random drug testing are subject to dismissal upon the return of positive test results.

(f) The University seeks to ensure the spoken English language competence of all prospective and current Faculty involved in classroom instruction, other than courses conducted primarily in a foreign language.

(3) Appointments.

(a) The President or President's designee shall have the authority to:

(1) Authorize and establish positions within the employee group classifications of Faculty, A & P and USPS. However, no position shall be filled until it has been authorized and classified.

(2) Hire Faculty, A & P and USPS employees in accordance with these provisions;

(3) Assign Administrative and Professional positions to an appropriate pay range; and

(4) Reclassify current authorized and established positions.

(b) The offer of employment to a Faculty, Executive Service, A & P, or USPS employee shall be made by the President or President’s designee.

(a) Appointments to the Executive Service, however, shall be made only by the President. The offer of employment to Faculty and A & P employees shall be made by means of a contract or appointment document, and conditioned on the return of a duly executed copy of the contract or written acceptance of the appointment by a specified date.

(b) Employees appointed to the Executive Service shall not have tenure and no expectation of appointment beyond a 60 days notice period. Executive Service positions shall be policy-making at the executive level and report directly to the President.

(c) OPS employees may be appointed to meet temporary or non-permanent employment needs. OPS employees have no right, interest or expectancy of continued employment. OPS employees shall not be assigned to a specific classification other than exempt (salaried) or non-exempt (hourly).

(d) The President or President’s designee may for the best interest of the University, and at any time, assign a faculty to other institutional assignment(s). This change in assignment will take place only after consultation with the employee and the departments or other affected units. Regardless of the change in assignment, however, the University is committed to compensate the employee. Change in assignments in conjunction with a nonreappointment shall be made pursuant to Regulation 10.207.

(e) No appointment shall create any right, interest, or expectancy of continued employment. At any time during any appointment, faculty, A & P, and Executive Service employees may be non-renewed upon written notice in compliance with these regulations and consistent with any relevant collective bargaining agreement.
(4) Appointment Modifiers.

The University shall use the following appointment modifiers, which define the conditions of an employee's appointment. Such appointment modifiers apply to the appointment of a qualified employee unless otherwise stated. Appointments shall be made only to positions that have been established in accordance with the University's Classification Plan.

a. Regular - A continuing appointment or an original temporary appointment, which may be followed by a continuing appointment. The appointment modifier is not included in the title.

b. Acting/Interim - A limited time appointment to a position primarily assigned administrative duties until a regular appointment is made.

c. Adjunct - An appointment paid from OPS. Adjunct appointments may not be for more than 50% of the time throughout an academic year or full-time for more than twenty-six weeks of a fiscal year, unless approved by the President. Such appointments are for temporary or part-time employment and the term of employment is only for the period specified in the offer.

d. Permanent – The status earned in a class after successful completion of the designated probationary period where applicable.

e. Visiting - An appointment of a person as a faculty member who have distinguished professional qualifications, when either the person or the position is not expected to be available for more than a limited period of time. No person shall be appointed to be visiting position beyond four (4) years.

f. Joint - An appointment when the person is regularly participating in the teaching and/or graduate supervision responsibilities of more than one academic department/unit.

g. Research - An appointment when the person is engaged primarily in research.

h. Clinical - An appointment in conjunction with a professional position in a hospital or other clinical environment.

i. Courtesy - An unpaid appointment which may include special academic privileges such as voting in departmental affairs. Persons appointed with this status may or may not be otherwise affiliated with the University.

j. Honorary/Honoris Causa - An unpaid appointment of an individual having distinction and honor in his/her field, but who does not possess the normal requirements for the position.

k. Emeritus - An honorary title which may be conferred at retirement in recognition of distinguished service.

l. Affiliate - An appointment when a person participates in some functions of other academic departments/units.

m. Joint College - An appointment to a college/unit administered jointly by more than one university. Although appointed and employed by only one of the participating universities, each person so designated is considered an employee of the other participating universities for purposes of carrying out the teaching, research, and service responsibilities of the college/unit.

n. Phased Retirement - An appointment under the provisions of the Phased Retirement Program.

o. Regular - A continuing appointment after successful completion of the designated probationary period for the class.

p. Probationary - An appointment to a position in a class for the designated period, where the employee meets the minimum qualifications for the position.

q. Temporary - An appointment to provide a nonpermanent assignment to a vacant position; to replace an employee on leave, temporarily promoted or reassigned; or to overlap one employee with another for training purposes.

r. Time-limited - An appointment to a position funded by contract and grant, auxiliaries, or local funds, as appropriate, for a particular project, enterprise, or specified period. Such designation must be made to the position at the time of recruitment. A time-limited position shall have the same rights as a position with a regular appointment modifier, except such position shall not have rights provided for layoff and recall.

(5) Probationary Period for A&P and USPS employees.

(a) The initial appointment for of a new employee to an A&P or a USPS position shall be for a probationary period of six (6) months, with the exception of employees in law enforcement positions who shall serve an initial twelve (12) month probationary period. During this probationary period, the appointment may be terminated at any time without any requirements of notice and without any rights of appeal or access to any complaint procedure as provided in these regulations.

(b) Probationary employees are not eligible to apply for promotion or transfer until they have been employed continuously for 180 days.

2.1 CORPORATION/CORPORATE NAME - The Board is a public body corporate entitled “The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University Board of Trustees” with all the powers of a body corporate.

The Board is a corporation primarily acting as an instrumentality or agency of the State, pursuant to Section 768.28, Florida Statutes.

2.2 COMPOSITION/TRUSTEES - The Board shall be comprised of thirteen (13) members, six (6) of whom shall be appointed by the Governor and five (5) of whom shall be appointed by the Florida Board of Governors. The President of the Student Government Association and the University Faculty Senate shall serve as trustees during their terms of office. The appointed members of the Board shall be confirmed by the Florida Senate.

2.2.1 Trustees shall serve for staggered 5-year terms, and may be reappointed for additional terms.

2.2.2 The Governor or Florida Board of Governors may remove a Trustee for cause. Failure of a Trustee to attend three consecutive regular Board Meetings in any fiscal year may also be grounds for removal by the Governor or Florida Board of Governors, as appropriate.

2.2.3 The Governor or Florida Board of Governors shall fill Board vacancies by appointment, as appropriate.

2.2.4 Trustees shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for travel and per diem expenses in accordance with Section 112.061, Florida Statutes.

2.3 POWERS AND DUTIES - The Board shall serve as the governing body of “The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University.” It shall select the President of “The Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University” to serve at the pleasure of the Board and shall hold the President responsible for the university’s operation and management, performance, its fiscal accountability, and its compliance with federal and state laws and rules and regulations of the Board of Governors. The Board shall have the power to carry out all lawful functions permitted by these operating procedures, by regulation and policies of the Board of Governors, and by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida, as now or hereafter established.

The Board may adopt rules, regulations, and policies consistent with the University's mission, with law and with the rules and regulations of the Board of Governors, to fulfill its obligations under the law.

2.4 CORPORATE SEAL - The Corporate Seal shall be used only in connection with the transaction of business of the Board and of the University. The Corporate Secretary may affix the seal on any document signed on behalf of the Board.
