FAMU Division of Research, Tallahassee, FL—The National Institute of Standards and Technology’s (NIST’s) Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF) program is now accepting applications. Spend your summer working elbow-to-elbow with NIST researchers, one of the world’s largest research organizations. The SURF is a summer program where one may gain valuable hands-on experience, work with cutting-edge technology, meet peers, and sample the Washington, DC area—all while getting paid—APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 15th. The SURF Program is anticipated to run from May 24th through August 6th 2010.

Please recall the Inaugural FAMU Distinguished Lecturer Series (fall ’09) welcomed: Bryant C. Nelson, Ph.D., Research Chemist with NIST. He strongly encouraged FAMUans to apply for and to secure these lucrative summer experiences. The SURF program is co-sponsored by NIST and the National Science Foundation.
