Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child	under 65	$16,750
	65 or older	$18,000

*If you were born before January 1, 1952, you are considered to be 65 or older at the end of 2017.

*Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax, including any income from sources outside the United States (even if you may exclude part or all of it). Do not include social security benefits unless (a) you are married filing a separate return and you lived with your spouse at any time during 2017 or (b) one-half of your social security benefits plus your other gross income is more than $25,000 ($32,000 if married filing jointly). If (a) or (b) applies, see the instructions for Form 1040 or 1040A to figure the taxable part of social security benefits you must include in gross income.

If you did not live with your spouse at the end of 2017 (or on the date your spouse died) and your gross income was at least $4,000, you must file a return regardless of your age.
