Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Does FAMU match another university's scholarship offer? No, we do not match offers. If you believe your aid package deserves a review, request it in writing through the financial aid office. However, the amount of the scholarship will not be adjusted to match another offer.

I have outside scholarship check(s) made payable to me. Am I required to notify the financial aid department? Yes, federal regulations require ALL students who receive financial assistance via internal or external sources to notify the FAMU Office of Financial Aid.

I have a scholarship check made payable to FAMU and me, can I cash the check and keep the funds? No, you are required to endorse the check, including your SID#, and deliver the check to the Office of Student Accounts. The funds will be applied towards your matriculation charges.

Will additional internal or external scholarships affect my University scholarship? Yes, all internal or external scholarship funds will be applied first, then the University Scholarship. If the aid package exceeds your financial need or your cost of attendance, the university scholarship will be reduced.

When should I notify the University of additional scholarships? You should notify the Office of Financial Aid of all internal and external scholarships immediately upon notification from the donor. You may provide a copy of the written communication to the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Does FAMU consider super scores on the SAT and/or ACT? Yes.

Can I submit a new transcript after the November 1st deadline to improve my GPA? No, all official transcripts must be submitted, processed and on file in the Office of Admissions prior to November 1st.

Can I apply for the scholarship without applying to the University? No, only those students who have a letter or electronic communication from the Office of Admissions confirming their status as admitted and those who meet the minimum criteria will move forward in the initial selection process. You must have received this paper letter or an electronic letter from the Office of Admissions before 5:00 p.m., November 1st.

Can I submit a paper scholarship application in lieu of the electronic application? No, only electronic scholarship applications will be considered for scholarships.

How can I prepare for the ALEKS Math Placement Exam? You can contact the FAMU Testing Center at famutesting@famu.edu from your FAMU email account. The practice assessment can be done from home. The proctored exam will take place on campus, during the Scholars' Spring Preview. For additional questions or concerns, contact the Testing Office via the aforementioned email.

Does FAMU calculate +/- in the high school GPA? No, FAMU does not calculate the +/- system in the recalculated GPA requirement.

What happens if I submit my application and/or transcripts to a FAMU representative instead of the office of admissions. Candidates will not be considered who do not apply directly to and directly submit their supporting documents to our office of admissions. No exceptions.

Is attendance at the Spring Preview and Showcase mandatory? Yes. Only candidates who attend will move forward in the selection and screening processes.

What does the Life-Gets-Better Scholarship cover? The LGB scholarship covers tuition and fees (up to 18 credit hours), room and board (at the base rate), up to $500 book stipend per semester, and a university provided laptop computer.

What are FAMU's codes for the ACT and SAT? The ACT code is 0726. The SAT code is 5215.

What is the FAFSA code for FAMU? The code is 001480.

When must I submit the FAFSA? The FAMU Office of Financial Aid must receive a completed and validated FAFSA by 5:00 p.m., January 1st. After the initial screening for scholarship purposes, if there is No FAFSA on file in our financial aid office, the scholarship candidate will not move forward in the selection process. Their candidacy terminates immediately. No exceptions.
