The general application for the 2016 Thurgood Marshall College Fund Leadership Institute (LI) is now available!

Students may start the application process by first creating a TMCF Account by going to the following link:

http://apply.tmcf.org

As TMCF’s premier leadership development conference, LI brings together the top 300 students from their 47 member-schools. Each student participates in intensive career readiness workshops and individualized coaching. The process culminates in an opportunity to compete for internship and full-time career opportunities with government agencies and major corporations. Please forward to interested individuals.
