7. You may only receive one scholarship at a time from CAFS.

First Time Incoming Freshmen

If you are applying as a high school student for the 2017 fall semester, you will automatically be considered for a CAFS General Scholarship. The selection process is highly competitive. If we offer you a scholarship, we will contact you by e-mail. The scholarship awards are contingent upon your successful completion of a high school program, with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0, outstanding standardized test scores, and that your initial, first-time enrollment at Florida A&M University (FAMU) will be the 2017 fall semester.

Freshman Scholarship Awards for Biological Systems Engineering (BSE) Majors

For high school graduates, who are majoring in Biological and Systems Engineering (BSE), please visit <http://www.famu.edu/cesta/main/index.cfm/linkservid/71052B04-91C4-7600-3F83DC2815F4714B/showMeta/0/> for a detailed description of this scholarship and an application form.

Florida Community College Transfer Scholarships

This scholarship was established to assist high achieving Florida community/junior college graduates. This partial scholarship is a two-year undergraduate scholarship awarded to an AA/AS Degree transfer student, who has a minimum cumulative 2.50 GPA and is not yet enrolled as a FAMU student. For more information, please visit <http://www.famu.edu/index.cfm?Scholarships&FloridaCommunityCollegeScholarship#>

In addition, if you are applying as a community college transfer student for the 2017 fall semester, you will automatically be considered for a CAFS General Scholarship. The selection process is highly competitive. If we offer you a scholarship, we will contact you by e-mail.
