Course Description
Studies in American Literature form the Civil War to present.

Course Purpose
The purpose of this course is to present various artists and movements in American Literature from 1865 to the present, as well as the impact of history and culture on the authors and their works.

Conceptual Framework
The Conceptual Framework in the Professional Education Unit (PEU) at Florida A&M University is an integrated approach to providing educational experiences that result in exemplary professional educators. The Framework is comprised of six themes with the mission of developing high quality classroom teachers, administrators and support personnel. The term “exemplary” refers to the kind of graduates the PEU strives to produce. The figure below provides a diagram of the Exemplary Professional Conceptual Framework
DIVERSITY

- CF 1
- Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 1.1 (K) | Understand diverse backgrounds of individuals. | F: 5,6,7 | I: 3 |
| CF: 1.2 (S,D) | Acquire the skills & dispositions to understand & support diverse student learning. | F: 5,7 | I: 3,8 |
| CF: 1.3 (S,D) | Accept and foster diversity. | F: 5,6 | I: 3,8 |
| CF: 1.4 (S) | Practice strategies such as: acceptance, tolerance, mediation & resolution. | F: 5,6 | I: 3 |
| CF: 1.5 (K, S) | Establish a comfortable environment in which all students can learn. | F: 5, 7, 9, 10 | I: 5 |

TECHNOLOGY

- CF 2
- Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 2.1 (S) | Use of available technology and software to support student learning. | F: 4,12 | I: 6 |
| CF: 2.2 (S) | Use technology to manage, evaluate and improve instruction. | F: 1,4,10, 12 | I: 6,7 |
| CF: 2.3 (K) | Know fundamental concepts in technology. | F: 12 | I: 1,6 |
| CF: 2.4 (K) | Understand fundamental concepts in technology. | F: 2,12 | I: 6 |
| CF: 2.5 (S) | Use fundamental concepts in technology. | F: 12 | I: 6 |
| CF: 2.6 (S,D) | Facilitate access to technology for students. | F: 12 | I: 6 |
| CF: 2.7 (S) | Facilitate the use of technology by students. | F: 4,12 | I: 6 |

VALUES

- CF 3
- Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 3.1 (S) | Work with colleagues in a professional manner. | F: 6 | I: 2,5 |
| CF: 3.2 (S) | Interact with students, families and other stakeholders in a manner that reflects ethical and moral standards. | F:11,6 | I: 9,10 |

CRITICAL THINKING

• CF4
• Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 4.1 (K) | Understand a variety of instructional/professional strategies to encourage student development of critical thinking and performance. | F:4,7 | I: 4 |
| CF: 4.2 (S) | Use a variety of instructional/professional strategies to encourage students’ development of critical thinking and performance. | F:2,7 | I: 4 |
| CF: 4.3 (D) | Value critical thinking and self-directed learning as habits of mind. | F:4 | I: 1,4 |
| CF: 4.4 (K) | Acquire performance assessment techniques and strategies that measure higher order thinking skills of student. | F:1,4 | I: 1,8 |
| CF: 4.5 (S) | Demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills. | F: 8 | I: 4 |

PROFESSIONALISM

• CF 5
• Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 5.1 (K) | Know the content | F: 8 | I: 1 |
| CF: 5.2 (S) | Use the appropriate pedagogy to provide all students with the opportunity to learn. | F:7,9 | I: 7 |
| CF: 5.3 (D) | Demonstrate commitment to professional growth & development. | F:3,7 | I: 9 |
| CF: 5.4 (K,S) | Use major concepts, principles, theories & research related to the development of children and adults. | F: 7 | I: 2 |
| CF: 5.5 (S) | Construct learning opportunities that support student development & acquisition of knowledge & motivation. | F: 7 | I: 5 |
| CF: 5.6 (S) | Display effective verbal & non-verbal communication techniques to foster valuable interaction in the classroom. | F: 2 | I: 6 |
| CF: 5.7 (S,D) | Display appropriate code of conduct including dress, language, and respective behavior. | F: 9 | I:5,9 |
| CF: 5.8 (K,S) | Know and use student personnel services | F:5,10,12 | I: 2,10 |

URBAN/RURAL EDUCATION

• CF6
• Through this focal area, the FAMU professional education candidate will:

| CF: 6.1 (S) | Be able to work in school settings with varied levels of human and material resources. | F: 9,10,11 | I: 10 |
| CF: 6.2 (S,D) | Be able to work in school settings that focus on rural/urban context with opportunities and challenges that these environments provide. | F: 11 | I: 3 |
| CF: 6.3 (K) | Understand the conditions of both rural and urban students and families. | F: 5, 11 | I: 2,3 |
| CF: 6.4 (S) | Communicate effectively with students’ parents and the community. | F: 5,11 | I: 6 |

Overall Goals of the Course

The overall goal of this course is to engage students in discourse on specific authors and movements in American Literature, from the civil War to the present, in an attempt to help them think critically about the texts and to broaden their worldviews.
Specific Behavioral Objectives

- The following aims are the main objectives of the American Literature II course:
- To identify iconic writers of American Literature post-1865,
- To identify seminal themes in texts written by American writers after the Civil War,
- To engage in discourse and critical analysis of texts written by authors of American Literature post 1865,
- To explore the impact of zeitgeist--“the spirit of the times”--and how culture, politics, and history influence an artist’s literary creation,
- To identify various movements in American Literature after the Civil War,
- To synthesize information from lectures, class readings, and outside sources in order to complete the research project,
- To become vocal class participants,
- To become competent writers, critical thinkers, researchers, and discussion leaders in this area of study critically analyze and interpret literary terminology, literary theories and concepts, authors and literary periods

National and State Standards Addressed in the Course

NCTE/ IRA Standards for the English Language Arts

1. Students read a wide range of print and nonprint texts to build an understanding of texts, of themselves, and of the cultures of the United States and the world; to acquire new information; to respond to the needs and demands of society and the workplace; and for personal fulfillment. Among these texts are fiction and nonfiction, classic and contemporary works.

2. Students read a wide range of literature from many periods in many genres to build an understanding of the many dimensions (e.g., philosophical, ethical, aesthetic) of human experience.

3. Students apply a wide range of strategies to comprehend, interpret, evaluate, and appreciate texts. They draw on their prior experience, their interactions with other readers and writers, their knowledge of word meaning and of other texts, their word identification strategies, and their understanding of textual features (e.g., sound-letter correspondence, sentence structure, context, graphics).

4. Students adjust their use of spoken, written, and visual language (e.g., conventions, style, vocabulary) to communicate effectively with a variety of audiences and for different purposes.

5. Students employ a wide range of strategies as they write and use different writing process elements appropriately to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes.

6. Students apply knowledge of language structure, language conventions (e.g., spelling and punctuation), media techniques, figurative language, and genre to create, critique, and discuss print and nonprint texts.

7. Students conduct research on issues and interests by generating ideas and questions, and by posing problems. They gather, evaluate, and synthesize data from a variety of sources (e.g., print and nonprint texts, artifacts, people) to communicate their discoveries in ways that suit their purpose and audience.

8. Students use a variety of technological and informational resources (e.g., libraries, databases, computer networks, video) to gather and synthesize information and to create and communicate knowledge.

9. Students develop an understanding of and respect for diversity in language use, patterns, and dialects across cultures, ethnic groups, geographic regions, and social roles.

10. Students whose first language is not English make use of their first language to develop competency in the English language arts and to develop understanding of content across the curriculum.

11. Students participate as knowledgeable, reflective, creative, and critical members of a variety of literacy communities.

12. Students use spoken, written, and visual language to accomplish their own purposes (e.g., for learning, enjoyment, persuasion, and the exchange of information).

NAEYC – Standards for Professional Preparation

At the advanced level, these tools are essential components of each specialization and of each of the five NAEYC standards:

(1) Promoting Child Development and Learning;

(2) Building Family and Community Relationships;

(3) Observing, Documenting, and Assessing to Support Young Children and Families;
(4) Teaching and Learning; and (5) Growing as a Professional.

1. Cultural Competence: Advanced program candidates demonstrate a high level of competence in understanding and responding to diversity of culture, language, and ethnicity.

2. Knowledge and Application of Ethical Principles: Advanced program candidates demonstrate in depth knowledge and thoughtful application of NAEYC’s Code of Ethical Conduct and other.

3. Communication Skills: Advanced program candidates possess a high level of oral, written, and technological communication skills, with specialization for the specific professional role(s) emphasized in the program.

4. Mastery of Relevant Theory and Research: Advanced program candidates demonstrate in depth, critical knowledge of the theory and research relevant to the professional role(s) and focus area(s) emphasized in the program.

5. Skills in Identifying and Using Professional Resources: Advanced program candidates demonstrate a high level of skill in identifying and using the human, material, and technological resources needed to perform their professional roles and to keep abreast of the field’s changing knowledge base.

6. Inquiry Skills and Knowledge of Research Methods: Using systematic and professionally accepted approaches, advanced program candidates demonstrate inquiry skills, showing their ability to investigate questions relevant to their practice and professional goals.

7. Skills in Collaborating, Teaching, and Mentoring: Advanced program candidates demonstrate the flexible, varied skills needed to work collaboratively and effectively with other adults in professional roles.

8. Advocacy Skills: Advanced program candidates demonstrate competence in articulating and advocating for sound professional practices and public policies for the positive development.

9. Leadership Skills: Advanced program candidates reflect on and use their abilities and opportunities to think strategically, build consensus, create change, and influence better outcomes for children, families, and the profession.

Florida DOE Teacher Competencies English 6-12

NCTE/NCATE Standards for Initial Preparation of Teachers of Secondary ELA Grades 7-12

1. Candidates follow a specific curriculum and are expected to meet appropriate performance assessments for preservice English language arts teachers.
   1.1 Complete a program of study with a clear conceptual framework that reflects a strong integration of content, current theory, and practice in ELA;
   1.2 Explore a strong blend of theory and practice in their ELA preparation with evidence of completing assessed performances in fully supervised field experiences that reflect a variety of settings and student populations and which include more than 10 weeks of student teaching in classrooms with ELA licensed teachers;
   1.3 Work with college, university, and school faculty in English and education who collaborate on a regular basis to strengthen their teaching, develop curriculum, and pursue knowledge in the content, pedagogy, and attitudes appropriate to the preparation of ELA teachers;
   1.4 Meet performance benchmarks and/or gateways within an ELA program assessment system that regularly evaluates candidate performances by using multiple forms of assessment which demonstrate validity and reliability and which are common to all candidates.

2. Through modeling, advisement, instruction, field experiences, assessment of performance, and involvement in professional organizations, candidates adopt and strengthen professional attitudes needed by English language arts teachers.
   2.1 Create and sustain an inclusive and supportive learning environment in which all students can engage in learning;
   2.2 Use ELA extensively and creatively to help their students become more familiar with their own and others' cultures;
   2.3 Use the results of reflective practice not only to adapt instruction and behavior to assist all students to learn but also to design a well-conceived plan for professional development that features collaboration with the academic community, professional organizations, and others;
   2.4 Design and implement instruction and assessment that assist students in developing habits of critical thinking;
   2.5 Make meaningful and creative connections between the ELA curriculum and developments in culture, society, and education;
   2.6 Plan and carry out frequent and extended learning experiences that integrate arts and humanities into the daily learning of their students.

3. Candidates are knowledgeable about language; literature; oral, visual, and written literacy; print and nonprint media; technology; and research theory and findings.
   3.1 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of, and skills in the use of, the English language.
   3.1.1 Integrate their knowledge of students' language acquisition and development into instruction and assessment designed to enhance their students' learning;
   3.1.2 Design, implement, and assess instruction that engages all students in reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and thinking as interrelated dimensions of the learning experience in ELA;
   3.1.3 Use both theory and practice in helping students understand the impact of cultural, economic, political, and social environments on language;
   3.1.4 Show extensive knowledge of how and why language varies and changes in different regions, across different cultural groups, and across different time periods and incorporate that knowledge into classroom instruction and assessment that acknowledge and show consistent respect for language diversity;
   3.1.5 Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of the evolution of the English language and historical influences on its forms and how to integrate this knowledge into student learning;
   3.1.6 Incorporate an in-depth knowledge of English grammars into teaching skills that empower students to compose and to respond effectively to written, oral, and other texts;
3.1.7 Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of semantics, syntax, morphology, and phonology through their own effective use of language and integrate that knowledge into teaching their students to use oral and written language effectively.

3.2 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of the practices of oral, visual, and written literacy.

3.2.1 Create opportunities and develop strategies that permit students to demonstrate, through their own work, the influence of language and visual images on thinking and composing;

3.2.2 Create opportunities and develop strategies for enabling students to demonstrate how they integrate writing, speaking, and observing in their own learning processes;

3.2.3 Demonstrate a variety of ways to teach students composing processes that result in their creating various forms of oral, visual, and written literacy;

3.2.4 Engage students in activities that provide opportunities for demonstrating their skills in writing, speaking, and creating visual images for a variety of audiences and purposes;

3.2.5 Use a variety of ways to assist students in creating and critiquing a wide range of print and nonprint texts for multiple purposes and help students understand the relationship between symbols and meaning.

3.3 Candidates demonstrate their knowledge of reading processes.

3.3.1 Integrate into their teaching continuous use of carefully designed learning experiences that encourage students to demonstrate their ability to read and respond to a range of texts of varying complexity and difficulty;

3.3.2 Use a wide range of approaches for helping students to draw upon their past experiences, sociocultural backgrounds, interests, capabilities, and understandings to make meaning of texts;

3.3.3 Integrate into students' learning experiences a wide variety of strategies to interpret, evaluate, and appreciate texts and assess the effectiveness of such strategies in promoting student learning.

3.4 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of different composing processes.

3.4.1 Develop in their students an ability to use a wide variety of effective composing strategies to generate meaning and to clarify understanding;

3.4.2 Teach students to make appropriate selections from different forms of written discourse for a variety of audiences and purposes and to assess the effectiveness of their products in influencing thought and action.

3.5 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of, and uses for, an extensive range of literature.

3.5.1 Works representing a broad historical and contemporary spectrum of United States, British, and world, including non-Western, literature;

3.5.3 Numerous works specifically written for older children and younger adults;

3.5.4 A range of works of literary theory and criticism and an understanding of their effect on reading and interpretive approaches.

3.6 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of the range and influence of print and nonprint media and technology in contemporary culture.

3.6.1 Understand media’s influence on culture and people’s actions and communication, reflecting that knowledge not only in their own work but also in their teaching;

3.6.2 Use a variety of approaches for teaching students how to construct meaning from media and nonprint texts and integrate learning opportunities into classroom experiences that promote composing and responding to such texts;

3.6.3 Help students compose and respond to film, video, graphic, photographic, audio, and multimedia texts and use current technology to enhance their own learning and reflection on their learning.

3.7 Candidates demonstrate knowledge of research theory and findings in English language arts.

3.7.1 Reflect on their own teaching performances in light of research on, and theories of, how students compose and respond to text and make adjustments in their teaching as appropriate;

3.7.2 Use teacher-researcher models of classroom inquiry to analyze their own teaching practices so they can better understand what enables students to speak, listen, write, read, enact, and view effectively in varying learning situations.

4. Candidates acquire and demonstrate the dispositions and skills needed to integrate knowledge of English language arts, students, and teaching.

4.1.1 Understand the purposes and characteristics of different kinds of curricula and related teaching resources and select or create instructional materials that are consistent with what is currently known about student learning in ELA;

4.1.2 Create literate classroom communities by presenting varied structures and techniques for group interactions by employing effective classroom management strategies and by providing students with opportunities for feedback and reflection;

4.1.3 Work with teachers in other content areas to help students connect important ideas, concepts, and skills within ELA with similar ones in other disciplines;
4.1.4 Create opportunities for students to analyze how social context affects language and to monitor their own language use and behavior in terms of demonstrating respect for individual differences of ethnicity, race, language, culture, gender, and ability;

4.1.5 Help students to participate in dialogue within a community of learners by making explicit for all students the speech and related behaviors appropriate for conversing about ideas presented through oral, written, and/or visual forms;

4.1.6 Engage students in critical analysis of different media and communications technologies and their effect on students’ learning;

4.1.7 Integrate throughout the ELA curriculum learning opportunities in which students demonstrate their abilities to use language for a variety of purposes in communication;

4.1.8 Engage students in discovering their personal response to texts and ways to connect such responses to other larger meanings and critical stances;

4.1.9 Demonstrate how reading comprehension strategies are flexible for making and monitoring meaning in both print and nonprint texts and teach a wide variety of such strategies to all students; Integrate assessment consistently into instruction by:

4.1.9.1 Establishing criteria and developing strategies for assessment that allow all students to understand what they know and can do in light of their instructional experiences;

4.1.9.2 Interpreting the individual and group results of any assessments and drawing upon a variety of information in these assessments to inform instruction;

4.1.9.3 Assisting all students in becoming monitors of their own work and growth in speaking, listening, writing, reading, enacting, and viewing;

4.1.9.4 Explaining to students, parents, and others concerned with education how students are assessed.

Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC) Standards & the Florida Professional Educator Accomplished Practices

1. ASSESSMENT

1.1 The preprofessional teacher collects and uses data gathered from a variety of sources. These sources include both traditional and alternate assessment strategies. Furthermore, the teacher can identify and match the students’ instructional plans with their cognitive, social, linguistic, cultural, emotional, and physical needs.

1.2 1.PRE.a Analyzes individuals’ learning needs and practices techniques which accommodate differences, including linguistic and cultural differences.

1.PRE.j Interprets, with assistance, data from various informal and standardized assessment procedures.

1.PRE.k Reviews assessment data and identifies students’ strengths and weaknesses.

1.PRE.l Communicates individual student progress in student, parent, and staff conferences.

1.PRE.m Develops short- and long-term personal and professional goals relating to assessment.

2. COMMUNICATION

2.1 The preprofessional teacher recognizes the need for effective communication in the classroom and is in the process of acquiring techniques which she/he will use in the classroom.

2.PRE.c Varies communication (both verbal and nonverbal) according to the nature and needs of individuals.

2.PRE.i Provides opportunities for students to receive constructive feedback on individual work and behavior.

2.PRE.j Identifies communication techniques for use with colleagues, school/community specialists, administrators, and families, including families whose home language is not English.

2.PRE.k Develops short- and long-term personal and professional goals relating to communication.

3. CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

3.1 The preprofessional teacher realizes that she/he is in the initial stages of a lifelong learning process and that self-reflection is one of the key components of that process. While her/his concentration is, of necessity, inward and personal, the role of colleagues and school-based improvement activities increases as time passes. The teacher’s continued professional improvement is characterized by self-reflection, working with immediate colleagues and teammates, and meeting the goals of a personal professional development plan.

3.PRE.b Participates in and supports the overall school improvement process.

3.PRE.c Uses data from her/his own learning environments as a basis for reflecting upon and experimenting with personal teaching practices.

3.PRE.i Shows evidence of reflection and improvement in her/his performance in teaching/learning activities.
3.PRE.j  Seeks to increase her/his own professional growth by participating in training and other professional development experiences.
3.PRE.k  Has observed others in the role of steward and can demonstrate some of the skills involved.
3.PRE.l  Works as a reflective practitioner and develops the skills to recognize problems, research solutions, and evaluate outcomes.

4. CRITICAL THINKING

4.1  The preprofessional teacher is acquiring performance assessment techniques and strategies that measure higher order thinking skills in students and is building a repertoire of realistic projects and problem-solving activities designed to assist all students in demonstrating their ability to think creatively.
4.PRE.b  Identifies strategies, materials, and technologies that she/he will use to expand students’ thinking abilities.
4.PRE.c  Has strategies for utilizing discussions, group interactions, and writing to encourage student problem solving.
4.PRE.g  Demonstrates and models the use of higher-order thinking abilities.
4.PRE.j  Uses technology and other appropriate tools in the learning environment.

5. DIVERSITY
