According to Florida Statue 1004.04 (6) (b)(a), all instructional personnel who supervise or direct teacher preparation students during field experience courses on internship shall have evidence of Clinical Education training. Each semester the Clinical Training series satisfies the requirement of all instructors in post secondary teacher preparation programs who supervise interns. This training, developed by the Florida Department of Education meets the recommended requirements by the Florida Standards commission.

- The University Supervisor
- Clinical Educator Training
- Designation as High performing Faculty
- Joint selection and approval process (Department Chair, Director of Student Teaching and Deans of College of Education and Arts and Sciences.
- Social Skills: competences
THE COOPERATING TEACHER WILL:

- Possess the level of academic preparation recommended for the teaching position held.
- Possess full certification for the assigned teaching performance.
- Demonstrate consistently high quality teaching performance.
- Demonstrate personal and professional attitudes desirable for one in a leadership role in teacher education.
- Participate in the program willingly and look upon supervising the student teacher as a professional contribution.
THE COOPERATING TEACHER WILL:

CONTINUED.......

- Have completed a minimum of three years of successful teaching.
- Be approved by the administrator of the cooperating school/program and by the administrator of the Teacher Education Institution.
- Have a maximum of one student teacher per academic year, except in situations for special programs or areas where personnel is limited as approved in advance by the Staff Development Office or Superintendent designee.
- Have taken a course in the clinical supervision of student teachers.