Greetings! Thank you for your interest in the Delores A. Auzenne Fellowship program. The Delores A. Auzenne Fellowship is designed to assist Florida A&M University in increasing the matriculation of minority graduate students in disciplines in which they are underrepresented. Under this program, graduate students may receive awards up to $5,000 (example: $2,500 for the fall and/or spring semester) per academic year. Awards are limited, competitive and contingent upon the availability of funds.

Eligibility Requirements. In order to qualify for a Delores A. Auzenne Fellowship, a student must meet the following criteria: (1) Acceptance into a degree seeking graduate (master’s or doctoral) program; (2) Demonstrate initiative and qualifications to assure satisfactory progress in pursuing his or her future educational goal; (3) Must be a citizen or a permanent resident of the United States; (4) Does NOT have any other assistantship or fellowship for the academic year; and, (5) Enrolled as a full-time student (nine graduate credit hours for fall and spring semesters); and, (6) Have a completed Delores Auzenne Fellowship Application and supporting documents by August 29.

Application Requirements. To be considered for the Delores A. Auzenne Fellowship, applicants should submit this sheet and the following: (1) Personal Statement. On a separate sheet, please explain your reasons for pursuing graduate study at Florida A&M University and your career objectives. Also, please state how this fellowship will assist you in accomplishing your goals. Include any internships, research, publications, presentations and service activities that you have conducted that relate to your career goals. Please do not exceed one page. (2) Letters of Recommendation. Enclose two letters of recommendations from professors or current supervisors. (3) Academic Advisor Statement. Enclose a signed and dated statement from your academic advisor that includes: a. Total credits required for the degree program; b. Total hours completed; c. Total hours in progress; d. Cumulative GPA, undergraduate and graduate; and, e. GRE scores.
