In accordance with Policy #2005-22, I understand that I am eligible to register up to six credit hours/semester. I understand that I must receive a grade of "C" or better in order to be reimbursed for the course (s) taken. I understand that I must be a full time employee for at least one (1) year at the time of enrollment for the course(s)). Additionally, I understand that if the benefit is considered taxable, the dollar amount of the course(s) during the tax year, must under Federal law, be reported by Florida A&M University as taxable income for me. Reimbursement is subject to the availability of funds. I understand that employees may only enroll for instruction at FAMU and other Universities in the Florida State University System, excluding community colleges. I understand that I must take courses scheduled at times that will not require absence from work during regular work hours. I understand that I am only eligible for reimbursement at the Florida instate tuition rate for undergraduate and graduate courses. I understand that I am taking educational courses related to my job duties. I understand that my application must be submitted 10 days prior to the beginning of the semester. I understand that an original transcript of my grades must be submitted to Human Resources within ten days after I receive them. I understand that I must also provide a cancelled check or original receipt of payment for my classes to Human Resources at the same time that I submit the transcript. I understand that decisions regarding disputes of application eligibility and course reimbursements are binding and rest solely with the Assistant Vice President for Human Resources. Decisions may not be appealed.
