Mission
The mission of the Florida A&M University Libraries is to provide a user centered information environment that supports inspirational teaching, exemplary research, meaningful service, and life long learning to the local and global university community.

Samuel H. Coleman Memorial Library, the University's main library, is named for Samuel Harrison Coleman, who faithfully served the University as general alumni president for 14 years.

The Library was built in 1948, renovated in 1972, 1990 and in 2004 with the addition of a six million dollar, five-story, and 47,100 square feet wing.

The branch libraries, which are located in selected schools and colleges, offer resources and services in their respective disciplines. They include:

- Architecture Library
- Journalism & Graphic Communication Resources Center
