Information Literacy Sessions

The following workshops are designed to equip you with the skills necessary to locate and use library information resources and services. To register for a workshop, contact the Information Literacy Librarian at 412-5163 or the Information Commons Desk at 599-3330. All workshops will be held in Room AB410 of Coleman Library.

Be a Super Searcher
Do you retrieve a zillion hits and still don’t get anything you can use when surfing the web? Your searching dilemmas can all be resolved with just a click of the mouse. Let your librarian show you the secrets to successful searching. Get the results you need.

Do You Know Who You Are?
Who was the first President of FAMU? What is the Freedmen's Bureau? Where is the George Washington Carver National Monument? Find out where to find the answers to these and many other questions about your African American heritage.

What is a Peer-Reviewed Journal Article?
Juried, peer-reviewed, refereed, scholarly ... find out which databases allow you to limit your search to peer-reviewed journal articles.

How to Find It
How do I find a book? Where are the journals? Can I read my home town newspaper in the library? Is my textbook in the library? Can I type a paper in the library? Get the answers to these and other questions about the resources and services in your library.

Great Connections
Would you like to read books, journals, or newspapers from your home computer? Do you need to write a paper or conduct research while you’re out of town for the weekend? Do you need to ask a question, such as which database should I use to find full text articles? Find out how you can access your library via the Internet from anywhere at any time.

What's a Literary Criticism?
Where do I locate one? Find out the answers to these questions and more. Discover how to locate stories, plays, speeches, book reviews, author biographies, and other literary information.

One-on-One Instruction
You choose the search topic, database, resource, service, whatever you desire, and your librarian will give you personalized, individual instruction tailored to your needs.

Government Info
How many FAMUans are in the U.S. Congress? Where do I find the gross national product? Who is the chair of the Joint Chiefs of Staff? Get the answers to your questions when you use of the many government information resources available to you.