Mission

The mission of the Florida A&M University Libraries is to provide a user centered information environment that supports inspirational teaching, exemplary research, meaningful service, and lifelong learning to the local and global university community.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Main Library
Coleman Memorial Library

Samuel H. Coleman Memorial Library, the University’s main library, is named for Samuel Harrison Coleman, who faithfully served the University as general alumni president for 14 years. The Library was built in 1948, renovated in 1972, and in 1990. In 2004 a six million dollar, five-story, 47,100 square feet wing was added to the existing space. The branch libraries, which are located in selected schools and colleges, offer resources and services in their respective disciplines. It may be necessary to utilize the main library as well as any of the branch libraries, which are open to all.

Architecture Library*
School of Architecture
Walter L. Smith Building

The collection of the School of Architecture Library, located in room 104-B of the Walter L. Smith School of Architecture Building, consists of monographs and periodicals pertaining to architecture, landscape architecture, construction technology, design and other related design fields.

School of Journalism and Graphic Communication*

The School of Journalism and Graphic Communication Resources Center, holds a core collection of books, periodicals, and audiovisual resources, including microtext, that support the research and information needs of students and faculty in the areas of print (newspaper, magazine) and broadcast (radio, television) journalism, public relations, photography, graphic design, printing production technology, and printing management and supervision.

Science Research Center Library*
Frederick S. Humphries Science Research Center

The Science Research Center Library, located in 401-501 of the Frederick S. Humphries Science Research Center, serves the research and information needs of students, faculty and staff in the fields of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences, Nursing & Allied Health Science, Environmental Science, Physics, Computer Science and other related disciplines.
