LAPTOP COMPUTER CIRCULATION POLICY

Scope
As a result of the laptop loan program, users will have enhanced access to the library collections and other information resources, and academic achievement will be positively impacted.

Who Can Borrow?
Currently registered students and current employees of Florida A&M University who have registered for this service and have not returned a laptop, may borrow a laptop.

What is my responsibility?
- The borrower is totally responsible for the laptop from the time of acceptance until which time the Library Systems Staff records cleared on the Loan Agreement. The user will be charged for repair of the full replacement cost ($250.00) if the computer is damaged, not returned for any reason or components missing. Registration will be blocked, enrollment will be blocked, and grades will be with-held. Library services will
