Florida A&M University Student Health Services

Confidentiality Policy

Florida A&M University Student Health Services, a department in the Division of Student Affairs, requires that all employees, staff, contractors, volunteers, students and agents be informed of the confidentiality requirements regarding patient visits, professional care, medical records, and other health care related information; receive annual training; and sign confidentiality agreements annually. All medical, personal, biometric and financial information shall be treated as confidential.

This requirement is based on the following statutes and rules:

- Florida Statute, Chapter 119 (medical records)
- Florida Statute, Chapter 228.093 (student records)
- Florida Administrative Code, 6C-6.015 (student records)
- The Family Educational rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C.,
Chapter 1232, regulation 34 CFR, Part 99
- Florida Statute, Chapter 10D-41 (laboratories)
- Standards for Individually Identifiable Health Information,
45 CFR, Parts 160 and 164

These statutes and rules are available for review upon request.

Access to confidential information in the medical record and associated documents is restricted to authorized personnel. This means that all employees/volunteers are prohibited from obtaining any information about a patient unless it is related to providing a service for that patient and that employees/volunteers are prohibited from divulging any information about patients to any individuals or groups without the express written authorization of the patient or as allowed by law. All reasonable measures will be taken to secure and maintain the confidentiality of health care records and personal information.

This policy of confidentiality extends to administrative and personnel issues.

Each full-time or part-time employee or volunteer is employed with the understanding that he/she comprehends and actively supports this policy.

Seeking or releasing any information, in violation of this policy is a serious matter which could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination, legal action and/or academic suspension/dismissal.

My signature below indicates that I have read, understand and agree to abide by this policy.
