Summer Intern for HLN Morning Express

Job Title: Summer Intern for HLN Morning Express

Job Category: Editorial

Job Location: United States - Georgia - Atlanta

Job Type: Intern

Requisition #: 149607BR

http://jobsatturner.com/careers/internship-jobs/job-list-4

Posting Job Description:
HLN is the first TV home for the social media generation and HLN Morning Express with Robin Meade is one of the leading shows on the network!

A Summer Intern for the Morning Express Team, will be responsible for supporting the executives, producers and writers. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, researching and pitching story and segment ideas, monitoring what's trending on social media, as well as writing, editing and basic administrative duties. The intern should be knowledgeable in and possess a passion for broadcast journalism, television news and social media

Qualifications:

- The intern must be skilled in Microsoft Office Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook and possess superior research abilities, fastidious organization and writing skills.
- In addition, the intern should have general knowledge in production systems such as iNews, Final Cut Pro, and Adobe.
- Awareness of the television news and social media climate is vital while interning with this department

Program Details:

- Internship Program dates are June 6th to August 5th.
- Interns are paid at minimum-wage and relocation is not provided. Students must have completed their sophomore year in college prior to the start of the internship.
- Note to International Students: All international students will be required to provide documentation of proper visa paperwork prior to your arrival if accepted to the program.