Fanchon F Funk Scholars Award

The Fanchon F. Scholars are chosen annually by the Florida Association of Teacher Educators. They are selected because of their potential to carry the torch that Dr. Funk ignited. The honor bestowed upon them carries recognition, privilege, opportunity, and obligation. The recognition comes from being selected as outstanding future educators by FATE. The privilege and opportunity come in the form of discourse and the opportunity to work with esteemed members of the education profession at the annual FATE Conference. The obligation is fulfilled as these Scholars assist with the Conference and as they strive to achieve professional and personal goals that reflect the challenges and accomplishments that characterize the life and career of Dr. Fanchon F. Funk.

The FATE Fanchon F. Funk Scholars will receive complimentary registration to the 2010 FATE Conference, a one-year membership in FATE, and a $300 scholarship award.

About Fanchon Funk

Dr. Fanchon “Fancy” F. Funk is an educator in the true sense of the word, coming from the Latin educare which means to bring forth the best in another person. Beginning as a high school science teacher in Asheville, North Carolina, “Fancy” has touched the lives of thousands of students, always with the intention of bringing out the best in each one. As “Fancy” moved to a technical institute/community college and finally to the university level of teaching, clinical supervision, and administration at Florida State University, her influence was felt in every classroom she taught in, every committee and board she served on or chaired, every professional organization she volunteered her expertise in and every developing person she mentored along the way. It is impossible to think of teacher education in Florida and not think of “Fancy” Funk. “Fancy’s” signature on her email ends with a quote: “Every job is a reflection of the person who did it - autograph your work with excellence.” Dr. “Fancy” Funk autographs everything she does with excellence. She is an educator, a leader, a true friend. The reality of who she is and what she stands for will remain a part of FATE as we move into the future.
