PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Robinson started his report by highlighting that FAMU was named the Top Public HBCU for the fourth consecutive year. The University also received high marks in other rankings by the U.S. News and World Reports. He said that FAMU is on its way to becoming a Carnegie Research One University.

The University’s strategic plan was approved by the Florida Board of Governors during its September meeting. The plan lays the foundation for the University’s next steps and is a road map for the next five years. Each strategic area of focus identifies ambitious goals. He said that the University remains committed to increasing student success, and that its key initiatives for the upcoming year will move it forward, elevating and sustaining students. Of note are the goals for the Performance-Based Funding metrics which are at the top of the list.

President Robinson also shared several highlights:

- The University celebrated the past success of its graduates by unveiling a plaque honoring the fifty-seven law school students that attended the original FAMU College of Law.
- During the Freshman Transition Ceremony, he addressed the incoming class of 2026 and urged them to take advantage of the rich culture of FAMU.
- The University received $500,000 in Federal funding for the Coleman Memorial Library Preservation Project.
- The University expanded its partnership with Wiley to launch three new graduate degree program tracks in nursing.
- FAMU also joined Grow with Google’s HBCU career readiness program to train 100,000 Black college students in digital skills by 2025.
President Robinson shared that the University has seen a 160% increase in the number of first-time in college students who applied to FAMU this year, compared to last year. The average high school GPA of those students who applied thus far is 4.04.

President Robinson reiterated that “Great things are happening at FAMU every day” and shared that “Good Morning America” will broadcast from campus during the Homecoming 2022 festivities.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION REPORT

Next, Chair Lawson recognized University Trustee and Student Government President Zachary Bell for his report. Trustee Bell introduced his vice president Makira Burns and said that they are the Bell-Burns administration and are serving Rattlers by any means necessary.

Trustee Bell shared that the SGA has filled most of its cabinet positions and is fulfilling the S.T.R.I.K.E. platform, which stands for students, transportation, residency, involvement, knowledge, and experiences. He said that his platform, which was created by students for students and ensures that students’ needs and desires are addressed.

The Legislative Branch approved the fall 2022 election cycle and engaged in joint initiatives and legislation with the FSU Senate. The Judicial Branch confirmed the majority of the Student Supreme Court and is planning the annual “Know Your Rights” campaign before the November elections. The students created a video encouraging students to exercise their right to vote.

FACULTY SENATE REPORT

Trustee Cavazos shared a video update on the activities of the Faculty Senate. Dr. Daniel Osborne was elected vice president of the Faculty Senate, completing the term of Dr. Tiffany Ardley.

FAMU Faculty Senate recognized its outstanding teachers and advisors by presenting teaching and advising awards. The awards encourage and reward excellence, innovation, and effectiveness in either teaching or advising. Receiving the awards this year were Dr. Kamal Tawfiq - Advanced Teacher of the Year, Dr. Nan Liu - Teacher of the Year award, and Dr. Patrick Joseph - Advisor of the Year.

The Faculty Spotlight series showcased several faculty members for their recent publications:
- Shiv Persad, a College of Law professor published a recent article entitled “The American Constitution in the Cycle of Kali Yuga: Eastern Philosophy and Greets Western Democracy.”
- The grape breeding and fruit production team from the College of Agriculture and Food Sciences produced six significant peer-reviewed scientific publications since January 2022.
The Biological Systems Engineering program received its accreditation from ABET Engineering Accreditation Commission for the next six years.

Dr. April Croxton, a FAMU alum is the first African American woman to become president of the American Fisheries Society. She received her doctorate degree from the FAMU School of the Environment, under the supervision of Professor Richard Gragg.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business for the Board, the meeting adjourned.

G2: President Robinson’s Goals for 2022-2023

Goal One (1): Four-year Graduation Rate/Student Retention: Increase the University’s four-year graduation rate (PBF metric) to 38%; increase second-year retention rate to 90.0%.

Goal Two (2): Improve Licensure Pass Rate: Execute action plans that deliver first-time licensure pass rates of:
   4.1 Nursing: 85%
   4.2 Law: 80%
   4.3 Pharmacy: 90%
   4.4 Physical Therapy: 88%
Goal Three (3): Annual Giving: Increase annual giving to $15M

Goal Four (4): R&D Expenditures: Increase total R&D expenditures to $45M

Goal Five (5): Organizational Leadership:
- 5.1 Strategy – Effectively implement the Year-One goals and priorities outlined in the new Strategic Plan. Ongoing improvement in the attainment of “Top 100” metrics.
- 5.2 Talent Acquisition, Development, Retention, Succession and Organizational Effectiveness
- 5.3 Create Culture of Accountability (performance matters)/Continue implementation of the Customer Service Improvement Initiative

Goal Six (6): University Budget/Fiscal Management:
- 6.1 Financial Health – Strengthen the University’s financial health by achieving or exceeding a minimum debt coverage ratio ≥ 1.0.
- 6.2 Strategic Resource Allocations – Continue to align resource allocations to adequately support the University’s annual strategic priorities in all areas including athletics.

Goal Seven (7): Internal/External Relations: Continue to expand relationship-building with key stakeholders, including students, faculty, staff, Boards, alumni, elected officials (local, state, national), corporations, and the local community.
Chair Lawson called the meeting to order and asked Linda Barge-Miles to call the roll. The following trustees were present: Cavazos, Dubose, Harper, Lawson, Moore, Perry, Reed, and Stone. A quorum was established.

There were no requests for public comments.

Chair Lawson recognized Trustee Moore to address the Fixed Capital Outlay Budget revision. Trustee Moore explained that the University omitted the amount it anticipated spending for the current fiscal year. Vice President Gloria Walker further added that Board of Governors’ staff asked the University to revise the budget to include the projected deferred maintenance expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023. She said that revision was now before the Board for its approval. Trustee Dubose moved approval of the revision to the budget. Trustee Reed seconded the motion, and it passed with a unanimous vote.

Next, Chair Lawson recognized Dr. Shawnta Friday-Stroud to present the proposed change to the FAMU Foundation’s By-Laws. The Foundation’s Board of Directors recommended the change. Dr. Friday-Stroud stated that the revision removes the executive director from being a voting member of the Board of Directors. The executive director needs to be able to speak with Board members regarding pertinent issues, so this change enables them to do so and stay in compliance with the Sunshine Law. Trustee Moore moved approval of the revision. Trustee Dubose seconded the vote, and the motion passed unanimously.

With there being no further business, the meeting adjourned.
