

PROFESSOR EMERITUS

CANDIDATES

The deadlines for nominating Professor Emeritus candidates are: October 7, 2019 (Fall), February 3, 2020 (Spring), April 6, 2020 (Summer).

Faculty Senate Committee Reviews Candidates: October 14 – 18, 2019 (Fall), February 13 – 17, 2020 (Spring), April 6 – 10, 2020 (Summer).

Faculty Senate considers candidates for approval: October 2019 (Fall), February 2020 (Spring), March 2020 (Summer).

Professor Emeritus Nominees must show proof of:

- Ten or more years in the Florida Teacher Retirement system or the Florida Retirement System, or in one of the approved Optional retirement programs.
- Tenured member in the System at the Time of retirement.
- Full Professor at Florida A&M University at the time of retirement.
- Five or more years of teaching experience.
- Completely retired member of the System.

The benefits or privileges afforded with the Professor Emeritus status are as follows:

- Designated in the University catalog as Professor Emeritus.
- Given library usage, with carrel as available.
- Afforded parking permit and may apply for paid selected parking.
- Allowed reserved seating at University Convocations.
- Recognized at Commencement with name listed in program the semester and year the honor is bestowed.