OCTOBER FEATURE

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE THE HILL

FAMU HOMECOMING 2026 | OCTOBER 18-25

The Hill is calling Rattlers home. This year's Homecoming brings together students, alumni, and friends for a week of traditions, community, creativity, music, and Rattler pride. From coronation to the game at Bragg Memorial Stadium, there is something for everyone!

October at a Glance

Oct.13: Ribbons For Healing at Coleman Library and student outreach activities.
Oct. 18-25: Homecoming celebrations across campus.
Oct. 26-30: Spring 2027 early registration by appointment.

Student Activities Reminder

Organizations should submit campus events through iSTRIKE and obtain the required reviews and approvals before advertising. Outdoor tabling must be requested in advance through the Student Union process.

Plan ahead: Times, locations, and event details may change. Confirm on the official FAMU events calendar before attending.

Organization Spotlight: Women In Pre-Med

This month we are excited to highlight Women in Pre-Med, one of our newer organizations on campus!

Women In Pre-Med was created to support women of all racial backgrounds in pursuing a degree in medicine. WIPM empowers and connects future female healthcare leaders, fosters a community, and provides resources to help every member succeed.

WIPM promotes:

- Service
- Leadership Resources
- Female Empowerment
- Network
- Mental Health

This organization is a way for women of all background to gain experience and network with likeminded women.
